TO HELP DEBATERS

Speeches in Chapel this Morning.
Men Go this Afternoon.

The debating team leaves on the Burlington at 4:25 this afternoon for St. Louis, where they will meet Washington University Friday evening. They will arrive at their destination early Thursday morning and will be able to put in a couple of days viewing the sights and visiting the fair. They will not start back until Monday, and thus the men will be allowed sufficient opportunity to visit the fair.

The question of judges has been settled, a final agreement having been reached yesterday afternoon. The list is as follows: Judge O. H. Dean, a prominent member of the Kansas City bar, and dean of the Kansas City Law school; Prof. J. A. Woodburn, Ph. D., of the chair of history and politics in the University of Indiana, and Prof. N. G. Weatherly, Ph. D., of the chair of economics and social science in the University of Indiana.

On account of Washington's delay in selecting judges from the list furnished by Nebraska and because only one of the three gentlemen in Washington's first list was satisfactory to Nebraska, it looked until well along in the afternoon yesterday that there was going to be trouble in the matter. But the telegraph was utilized with good effect, and new everything is considered as settled, since all three of these gentlemen have assured that they will serve.

This marks another bid for victory "Nebraska," as she will attempt to make it seven straight. With six successive victories to her credit there is special incentive for her to go in and round out the year by again scoring complete success. There is no doubt that Washington will be able to furnish strong opposition, but we are confident in the ability of our team to make a hard finish fight.

As a means of stirring up enthusiasm for this debate, special talks will be given at convocation this morning. The speakers will be Dean Pound, Professor E. A. Ross and probably Chancellor Andrews. This meeting should be as largely attended as possible, as our men should be given a good send-off to encourage them in meeting the difficult situation before them.

The faculty and students are going to give the team a good send-off at the train this afternoon, and all University people are desired to be there and take part in the demonstration attending the leave taking; for whatever they do along these lines will certainly count. Remember that the team leaves at 4:25 this afternoon and do neglect to be at the depot to join in bidding them farewell and wishing them good luck.

The members of the team are George A. Lee, '03, of Humboldt; Burdette G. Lewis, '04, of Omaha, and John C. McReynolds, law '04, of Lincoln.

Freshmen Defeat Sophomores.

Yesterday afternoon the Freshmen defeated the Sophomores in a pretty exhibition of baseball, in which the work of the opposing pitchers was the feature. For the Sophomores Hrusky struck out nineteen men, and for the Freshmen Dort twigged fifteen of his opponents. The final score was 3 to 2, and well represents the character of the game. But in spite of the closeness of the score, some long hits were made. Robertson landed on the ball with tremendous vigor and circled the bases as a reward for his exertion. Cole and Rine both drove out a fine three-bagger. The Sophomores were the first to score, sending a man in during the second inning. The Freshmen tied the score in the fourth, and added two more in the sixth. The Sophomores scored again in the eighth, but beyond that there was nothing doing for them. Penlon injured the game. Just who will get his life insurance is uncertain. Score by innings:

Sophomores 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 0 - 2

Tuesday the Freshmen will meet the Juniors. The Juniors have beaten the Seniors and this game will settle the class championship. It will be an interesting contest. An admission of 10 cents will be charged.

OFFERS COURSE

Lincoln Business College to Co-Operate in Summer School.

The Lincoln Business College has made arrangements with the director of the Summer Session, whereby University students may take certain commercial subjects at reduced rates. This arrangement is being advertised extensively, and will meet the needs of many teachers preparing for the state examinations.

City Superintendent W. I. Stephens has an article in the May issue of the Nebraska Teacher strongly recommending the course in school management for which he sees great need. The indications point to a heavy enrollment in this course.

The special University train to St. Louis is at last contracted for and the long fight ended. The director has been at work three months and at last has what he set out for. Within a few days he will know whether the band can also be carried. He hopes to secure a date for a concert program by Hagenow's Stars on the exposition grounds. Secretary Harry Shedd, of the Nebraska commission, is helping to bring this about. The director goes to St. Louis this week to sign the hotel contract and then the total cost will be known. It can be said though now that the cost is irresistibly low. This excursion is proving very attractive. Teachers all over the west are making reservations for this trip. Full particulars will be published next week.

Junior Caps Appear.

The Juniors have blossomed out in bran new caps. The transformation began yesterday, when a sprinkling of them at first scant, swelled into conspicuous frequency. Properly speaking they are not caps, but hats with wide brims, and seem cool and light, as well as attractive.

OFF FOR BOULDER

Track Team Leaves to Compete With Colorado.

Yesterday morning the track team that will meet Colorado left over the Rock Island for Boulder, where it will compete this afternoon. The men have been well trained, and although some of them are not in the best of condition, yet they hope to win out. The Colorado papers are confident the Colorado men will give Nebraska a close shave, whether they win or not. Following are the men who compete for Nebraska, and the events in which they will take part:

100- and 220-yard dash—Bender, Smith.
440-yard dash—Smith, Hoar.
880-yard run—Benedict, Penrod.
1 mile—Penrod, States.
2 mile—States, Benedict.
120- and 220-hurdles—Hausel, Hagensiek.
Pole vault—Benedict, Hagensiek.
High jump—Benedict, Bowman.
Broad jump—Hagensiek, Bowman.
Shot-put—Hagensiek, Bowman.
Hammer throw—Martin, Weller.
Discus throw—Weller, Newton.
Dr. Clapp and Manager J. K. Morrison accompanied the team.

Creighton Tomorrow.

Tomorrow Creighton comes here to play a return game with our team. The game will be played at the F. & M. park. Saturday Nebraska inflicted a merciless drubbing upon the Omaha men, beating them by a score of 12 to 0. It is probable that Creighton will come well braced up for the game tomorrow, as experience has taught them it is well to do so. There is no reason for feeling assured that the game will be one-sided, and it will probably be very interesting.

SENIORS DEPART

Leave Lincoln on Their Annual May Outing.

The present Senior class is the first that refused to sneak, and Sneak Day is no more. Instead, they left early for Milford this morning on their First Annual May Outing. This change of name was decided upon after a conference of the representatives of the Seniors with the Chancellor. The Seniors yesterday seemed quite well satisfied with the new mode of designating their annual outing, inasmuch as it will in consequence be recognized and countenanced by the University authorities as a holiday.

This removes the ban that has rested upon the custom of the Seniors of hieing themselves off in the May of each year to indulge themselves in a pleasant time. The removal of the appellation by which the day has been designated places the occasion in a much better light, and lends it an air of respectability that it has never heretofore enjoyed. We understand that the members of the faculty are more willing to excuse the delinquents, and will not so strongly object to their temporary withdrawal from classes in their pursuit of happiness.

This Annual May Outing affords the members of the class an opportunity to get together informally and entertain themselves. They are enabled to enjoy a short space of rustic life, after they have been forced to view it through the eyes of Virgil and Horace, and are free to wander in the fields as they did in their childhood days, plucking the fragrant flowers and being chased to the woods by the autocratic cows, in whose domains they intrude.

Each year the Seniors hie themselves away secretly for a day's outing. They find it necessary to keep their preparations strictly secret if they wish to avoid interference from other classes. Last year the Juniors sought to complicate matters by getting out some deceptive posters. They depicted the dignified Seniors as intending to make the trip on handcars, with Woodlawn as the objective point. However, the Seniors managed to hold their outing in peace and came back weary, happy and relieved.

This morning about a hundred Seniors found it convenient to decamp. The rest promised faithfully, or were supposed to do so, that they would not venture into the vicinity of the class room at all, but enjoy the privilege that custom has given them. The excursionists are expected to return at 6 o'clock this evening, and will be back in classes to render their reckoning tomorrow.

Complimentary Notice for Girls.

Last week's number of the Minnesota Alumni Weekly contains a notice of the recent girls' basket ball match very complimentary to the playing of the Nebraska team and enthusiastic over Nebraska hospitality. Lincoln players will be interested to learn that Miss Hattie Van Bergen, the forward who scored two out of three field goals during the game here, was made captain of the Minnesota team for next year.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The undersigned hereby certifies that he expects to be in school next year and announces himself a candidate for student member of the Athletic Board, subject to the will of the student body.
