Editorial Remarks

The prospect of a recurrence of another season of class-wranglings such as marked the beginning of the last school year is not meeting with general approval among the faculty and the upper classes. These little diversions of the Sophomores and Freshmen are beginning to become somewhat monotonous to the calmer spirits among the student body and a remedy for the situation would be heartily welcomed.

The Nebraskan believes that the time has come when the two upper classes should take charge of the deliberations of the under classmen. The idea is by no means unheard of, and is, in fact, in operation in most of the larger educational institutions in the country. We believe that such a system, if adopted, would result in a greater dignity in class relationships, without endangering college spirit. It would at any rate offer a relief from last year's annoyances.

There will be a section of seats in the center of the east bleachers reserved for rooters at Saturday's game. This section will be for those having megaphones. As this is the last game on the home grounds for three weeks, let's show our appreciation of their efforts, by some systematic and enthusiastic rooting.

The team merits and must have the support of organized rooting. Come out and bring your megaphone.

Rooting practice will be held upon the field each afternoon.

The band met for the first time last evening and effected an organization. A. Hoyman was elected president, S. Anderson vice-president, and Roberts secretary. L. J. Pepperberg will be business manager again.

Forty-three men were out and will begin to try out for places at once. Prospects for a good band are very excellent. At last night's meeting Professor Hagenon was present and addressed the men briefly in his usual pleasing manner. Mr. Hagenon also spoke. Plans were discussed for raising the remainder of the temple fund pledged, but nothing definite was determined upon.
