uniform and lined up with the varsity. He was greeted by a cheer from the rooters on the bleachers. The new yell was practiced several times and the old ones given, but not half enough rooters were out. This evening rooting not only encouraged the scrubs and varsity men, but lines the throat with leather and is good for the bellows. Get out tonight and yell.

The second team journeyed to the metropolis of Ashland on a minute's notice Saturday afternoon and upheld the glory of the scarlet and cream by defeating Ashland H. S. 17-0. Details of the game were somewhat obscure, but the particular star seemed to be one "Jones." The final result, however, wasn't in doubt. Assistant Manager Johnnie Morrison, accompanied the team and acted as umpire, referee, linesman and waterboy.
