Editorial Remarks

College Spirit.

"With a little college spirit to back us up," said Coach Booth in his talk at the Rock Island depot yesterday. "we could be sure of winning every game on the schedule. What you lack is college spirit. There is not enough college spirit at Nebraska to move a snail!"

The Nebraskan is not at all sure that Mr. Booth's words can be taken that same team must overcome for the sake of the scarlet and cream.

After all, is Booth right? If the team is defeated, how large a crowd will meet it on its return? How much larger a crowd will meet it if it wins glorious victory, and adds to the fame of Nebraska? College spirit above all things, is generous, unselfish, self-sacrificing, indeed. Have we true college spirit at Nebraska, after all?

In Society

There has been little doing in the social line in the various fraternities and sororities this week. Aside from the formal initiation and the dinners and parties which usually accompany such events there has been nothing of importance.

Several of the fraternities and sororities have just moved into new homes and are too busy furnishing to give time to social events. It is expected that such work will be completed early next week and the usual number of dinners and parties follow in line with the "housewarmings."

Phi Gamma Delta will hold their initiation next week.

The initiation of Kappa Alpha Theta takes place on Friday, October 8th.

Miss Fritzerald and Miss Winkler left today to spend Sunday with friends in Omaha.

Miss Ida Taylor, '01, will be the guest of Miss Elva Sly the latter part of the week.

Misses Guy Hardy and Ed. Johnston are in Omaha attending the Ak-Sar-Ben.

Miss Wyer of the Minnesota University and a resident of Minneapolis is the newest pledge of the Kappa Kappa Gammas.

Miss Nell Davey and Miss M. Hiller were hostesses at an informal "water-literally. There is college spirit at Nebraska—lots of it. But the great difficulty is to get it out. Those who remember the Minnesota victory celebration two years ago will not admit a total lack of Cornhusker enthusiasm. We do not understand it, that is all. A few Sophomores, by deceit and trickery, assume control of a Freshman meeting and think they are exhibiting "college spirit." And these same Freshmen swallow the dose meekly enough, either not thinking at all, or believing that resistance would show a lack of "college spirit." The student body itself refuses to support various university enterprises unless thoroughly assured that it will be amply reimbursed. A dance must be held in connection with a big basketball game, for instance, to insure a crowd large enough to pay the expenses of the visiting team. A handful of students with real "college spirit" turns out to bid Godspeed to the greatest football team Nebraska ever had, when every student is well aware of the obstacles melon party" on Tuesday evening. The party included Misses Fritzerald, Ensor, McIntosh, Gluck, Sly, Winkler, McKnight, Lee, Bush and White.

Miss Ruth Wilson and Miss Verna Hall, both Kappa Kappa Gammas, are in Omaha attending the Ak-Sar-Ben festival. Miss Minnie Hill will meet her sister in Omaha and return to Lincoln to spend a few days at the university.

The Alpha Theta Chis will initiate three new members on Saturday evening. The initiation will be followed by a dinner at which all the members of the chapter house as well as the alumnae and new members will be present.

The Junior cap dance this evening in the Art Hall is looked forward to with great expectations, as it is the first dance of the year. The committee, Misses Hutton, Broady, and Messrs. Abel, Schreiber, Mason, Meade, Skeen, Pollock, have spared no time or pains to make the affair an enjoyable one.
