GET READY FOR FOOT BALL EXCURSION TO OMAHA

Special Train Leaves Burlington Depot Tomorrow at 9:30 a. m. and Leaves Omaha at 10:00 p. m.

The Fare Is $1.10 Round Trip But 200 Tickets Must be Sold to Get This Rate.

Tickets Must be Secured Today at Burlington Office or at Treas. Dale's Office.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the excursion for the Creighton game starts for Omaha from the Burlington station. It is probable that several hundred people will take advantage of the cheap rate that has been announced—$1.10 for the round trip—but two hundred tickets must be sold in order to secure the rate. For the convenience of the university students, it has been arranged so that tickets may be secured at the treasurer's office in the main hall. They may also be secured at the Burlington ticket office. The excursion will start back from Omaha about 10 o'clock Saturday evening.

The athletic board at its meeting Monday night arranged to send the band to the game. This insures good music, but a good crowd of rooters would do much toward making the game interesting.

WANTS BIG MEN.

Coach Booth Issues a Call for Heavier Line Men.

Coach Booth has issued a call for big men for the line. There are dozens of big, husky men in school who are not getting out and trying for places on the varsity and these heavy men are greatly needed. So far, the line positions have only one man available for each and a stiff game, such as the game with Colorado, emphasizes the dire necessity of having more heavy men to call upon. None of the places on the rush line are by any means cinched and that a man hasn't yet been out doesn't mean that it is too late. With the back field no fault can be found. We have line buckers and sprinters that can't be equaled, and some of the line men are up to the mark; but others are not, by any means.

Considering the small number of men reporting for practice at other schools the number of men out at Nebraska is very satisfactory, but more beef is needed. Coach Booth has a faculty of making football players, if he has a chance and every big man in school, whether experienced or not, should get out.

The game to have been played on Thanksgiving day between Michigan and Columbia, in New York city, has, according to the Michigan Daily, been called off by Manager Morely of Columbia, because he was afraid of the Wolverines. This is a game that has been attracting more interest than any since Wisconsin met Yale four or five years ago, and was defeated 6-0. It seems that the west will not have an opportunity to measure strength with the east this year, but this cannot be laid against Michigan, for she has repeatedly tried to schedule with all of the big eastern schools. We in the west regret their inability to meet Columbia, for we had no doubt as to Michigan's ability to take her measure.

Following the action of Columbia, the Chicago College of Physicians and Surgeons, which was scheduled to meet Michigan last Wednesday, also cancelled her date. Upon receipt of a spirited protest from Michigan, however, the game was finally played, resulting in a heavy score for Michigan. The Oberlin game, which was scheduled on condition that the Columbia game was played, has now been called off. Michigan's schedule ends November 12, with the Chicago game.

The following games will be played at various places tomorrow:
Nebraska vs. Creighton, at Omaha.
Wisconsin vs. Notre Dame, at Milwaukee.
Pennsylvania vs. Brown, at Franklin Field.
Yale vs. Syracuse, at New Haven.
Princeton vs. Annapolis, at Annapolis.
Harvard vs. West Point, at West Point.
Cornell vs. Bucknell, at Ithaca.
Columbia vs. Amherst, at New York.
Lafayette vs. Bloomsburg Normal, at Easton.
State vs. West Virginia, at State.
Dickinson vs. Franklin and Marshall, at Lancaster.
Sesquehanna vs. Dickinson Seminary, at Selimgrove.
Washington and Jefferson vs. California Normal, at Washington, Pa.
Wesleyan vs. Massachusetts A. C., at Middletown.
Michigan vs. O. S. U., at Columbus, Ohio.
Chicago vs. Iowa, at Chicago.

The Medical society will hold a meeting in M. 301 Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. Dr. H. B. Ward will lecture upon the subject, "Some Medical Impressions From My Trip in Europe." It is important that every medical student should ally himself with this work. All come out.

Professor Wyer will leave this evening for St. Louis, to attend the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the American Library association, of which he is secretary. Miss Comptoff, assistant librarian, and Miss Noble, librarian at the state farm, will also attend.

KANSAS NOT SORE.

Captain Benedict Receives a Friendly Letter.

Captain Benedict is in receipt of a letter from Captain Hicks of the Kansas football team, which seems to contradict the feeling expressed in the article in the K. U. paper. Mr. Hicks says that he hopes Nebraska will clean up the Indians when we meet them in Kansas City, and adds that he is very sorry relations more amicable do not exist between Nebraska and Kansas. The letter is full of real pro-Nebraska sentiment, and, if circumstances permitted of its publication, would go a long way toward taking away the feeling of disgust aroused by the clipping from the Kansas University paper. However, the paper is credited as the official organ of the university and as such must be relied upon to represent student sentiment.

GOOD PROSPECTS.

Twenty Men After Places on the Base Ball Team.

Last evening about twenty men reported for basketball practice. Among these were several new men, some of whom showed unusual skill in the game, and made the practice snappier than ever. Enough material is already available for two good teams, from which one of the best aggregations that ever represented Nebraska should be secured. Beers, Captain Hoar and Ed Hagensick, of last year's team, are back and will be in the game again.

The men are ordered to report for practice again this afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock.

Hop Poster Stolen.

The handsome Sophomore hop poster by Miss Mabel Williams, which has attracted so much attention during the past week, has been stolen from the bulletin board. No clue has as yet come to light that would identify the thief, and a liberal reward will be offered by the chairman of the committee for any information on the matter. The poster had already proved a strong drawing card, and much regret is expressed at its disappearance.

The registrar has received a letter from A. E. Lunt, of Harvard, campaign manager of the American Republican College league, asking for the address of the president of Republican club at Nebraska. Anyone authorized to receive communications in this capacity should hand his name to E. H. Clark at once.

BEGIN WORK EARLY.

Sombrero Board Outlines Plans for Junior Class Book.

The Junior Sombrero board of editors began active work on the book yesterday, and will push it with all possible speed from this time on. An office has been secured in room 304 of the main hall, and anyone having business with the editors can find them there afternoons from 3 to 6 o'clock. The editors have announced that since many persons outside of the university have come to form their opinions of university from the various class-books, special efforts will be made this year to raise the standard of the Sombrero to such an extent that it will compare favorably with that of any other university.

The usual form and size of the book will be maintained and the best features of former books, together with several original features already in contemplation. Considerable space will be devoted to athletics, debating and other prominent features of university life, and a number of literary features will be introduced. A short story contest is being contemplated, and considerable prominence will be given to verse and poetry.

Special care is to be taken in the artistic make-up of the book. A number of cartoonists have already been engaged, and it is intended to make the photographic cuts and engravings of unusual excellence. Bids for this work will be asked of the best firms in the west.

It is desired that all literary matter be in the hands of the editors by the middle of December, in order that it may be ready for the printers before May, since it is intended to have the book ready for publication early that month.
