In Society

Social events for the latter part of the week were not universally planned, as everyone had decided to go to Minnesota for the game. But now that the team has gone to win its laurels alone, affairs planned on the spur of the moment will be the order of the day. Several informals have been hurriedly arranged at the frat houses for this evening and tomorrow and they promise to afford as much enjoyment as carefully planned "formals."

The formal dance and party by the dormitory girls is announced to take place in two weeks.

Miss Jeanette Gillis has returned from a week's visit in Iowa, where she attended a family reunion.

Miss Heppner entertained the German club last evening. A most enjoyable social evening was spent.

The latest pledge of the Alpha Tau Omegas, Mr. McKnight of Buffalo, N. Y., was initiated last Saturday evening at the fraternity house.

The theater afforded much recreation to a number of university students during the week. On Thursday evening especially, a number of small theater parties witnessed De Wolf Hopper's production of "Wang."

The initiation of the latest pledges of the Sigma Chis, Charles Carney and J. Prongfelt, last Saturday evening, was followed by a large banquet at the Lindell. Covers were laid for twenty-five.

The Pi Phis will give an informal taffy pull at the frat house this evening. On Saturday evening there will be a formal dance at the house. A number of friends and fraternity men will make up the party on Saturday evening.

Hallowe'en will bring with it innumerable small parties and Hallowe'en celebrations of all kinds. At the state farm a typical Hallowe'en program is offered while several of the literary societies will give parties suitable to the evening.

Tomorrow evening the dormitory will be thrown open to the girls of the university. The occupants of the dormitory are making great preparations in the line of decorating and the reception room on the first floor, as well as the smaller ones upstairs, will wear their gala attire.

The Chi Omega sorority has announced three new pledges, Miss Clara Helmrod of Omaha, Miss May Strahorn of North Platte, and Miss Edith Patterson of North Platte. The initiation of these new members will take place tomorrow evening and will be followed by a spread. There have been several informal chafing dish parties and small dances at the sorority house during the past week.

The annual reception of Prof. Barber to the Latin students in Fraternity Hall on Tuesday evening was largely attended. The Hall was tastily decorated in crimson and white banners and bunting. In the receiving line were Prof. and Mrs. Barber, Prof. E. Johnson and Miss Hunter. During the evening, light refreshments were served. An interesting part of the entertainment was the singing of Latin songs by the students.

Postal Cards—the latest thing in burned leather, hand colored, 10c each. "Cowgirl," "Mining Girl" and "Gipsy Girl" posters each 15c. Card board, mat board and all supplies suitable for room decorations. Matted and unmatted pictures 5c to 25c each. The Lincoln Book Store.

Frank E. Lee, Public Stenographer and Notary. Milligraphic letters; perfect imitation. 501-502 Richards Bldg. Auto 1155.

The Famous will give a special discount of 10 per cent to university students on all purchases of millinery, kid gloves, corsets, etc.

Busts of Roosevelt and Parker will be given to the members of the republican and democratic clubs. Maxwell's, 13th and N.
