IOWA FEELS BLUE

Hard Luck Stories Come From Hawkeye Camp.

Several Men are Reported Hurt in the Ames Game.—Dope?

Stories of hard luck come from the Iowa football camp as a result of their contest with Ames last Saturday. The Hawkeyes' captain and three other members of the team are said to be on the hospital list. Some such rumors as these were afloat about the time we met Iowa last year, but for cripples the men across the Missouri put up a pretty lively game, holding Nebraska 17-6. Of course the wool isn't being pulled over our eyes, and perhaps Iowa doesn't intend it should be. The team Nebraska will line up against next Saturday will be the very best Iowa can put into the field, and one that will make Nebraska work to win the game. The long-existing rivalry between the two universities makes the interest in Saturday's game all the keener and the men from Iowa would rather drag the Scarlet and Cream in the dust than win from their Big Nine opponents.

As compared with Minnesota we consider the game with Iowa an easier matter, and we have a right to, but it will be a battle royal.

The men who will officiate in Saturday's game have been announced. They are Umpire, Ralph Hoagland, Chicago; referee, Dr. Outland, coach of Washburn college, Topeka; head linesman, F. D. Cornell, Lincoln.

The Burlington has announced a rate of $1.10 for the round trip to the game from Omaha. A large crowd is expected to be in attendance from the metropolis. Other rates may be announced later.

After Nebraska played and defeated Iowa last year our team was hooted off the field and small boys urged on and abetted by students of the Iowa University bombarded the Cornhuskers from the football field to the hotel. Illinois complained of the same treatment at Iowa's hands last year. This, of course, has been long forgotten, and is mentioned only to bring to the rooters to play even. No one ever got the better of Nebraska if we knew it. We will have Iowa here Saturday; we'll have our own crowd and their backing. Wouldn't this be a good opportunity to get even?

Wouldn't this be a good opportunity to meet the Hawkeyes at the train, surround their omnibus, cheer them to their hotel and show them how Nebraska treats her guests, as we did the Illinois last year.

Iowa leaves for Lincoln Thursday, arriving here Friday morning.

Practice last night consisted of punting, signal practice and scrimmage work. Benedict and Cotton were not out for practice and Glen and Cy

Mason, Borg and Bender were not put in scrimmage. Weller was at tackle, Reddick at quarter, McDonald at full, and Craig at half-back. With so many regulars out of the lineup the scrubs held the varsity to hard work. Some enthusiasm was aroused in the bleachers by what seemed a touchdown for the scrubs. Birkner, at full, began to find large holes in the varsity line, and for a while it looked as though he would go across the varsity goal line. The varsity bucked up, however, and no score was made on them. Fenlon at half-back made some good gains. His speed makes him an excellent man with the ball, and he is improving. Craig, as a result of the shakeup in the back field, is to be looked for at half-back, and was sent to the training table last night.

JUNIORS VS. ACADEMY.

Two Teams Will Play on Campus This Afternoon.

This afternoon the football teams of the Junior class, and of the Lincoln academy will line up on the football campus for the first class game of the season. The lineup of the academy will probably be the same as that in the Omaha game last Saturday. The Juniors' lineup will not be announced till this afternoon, but will look somewhat like this:

Juniors.	Academy.
McMahon	L. E. Morgan
Legro	L. T. Miller
Jenkins	L. G. Bigelow
Frazier	C. Waiters
.....	R. G. Moore
Wellensick	R. T. Emery
McLaughlin	R. E. Evans
Raber	Q. B. Dunn
Eteen	R. H. Myers
Kimmel	F. B. Birker
Charlton	L. H. Hall

SET THE DATE.

First Appearance of Glee Club February 16th.

The Glee Club held a good practice Tuesday evening. The recent try-out brought forth some good voices and the quality of the club this year will probably be superior to that of last year. There are still two second bases needed and two first tenors. Any men with voices ranging thereabouts on the scale should hand their names at once to Director Eames and they will be given a trial. Manager Williams is at work on an extensive schedule, comprising dates at a great many towns throughout the state. Rehearsal will occur Saturday at 7 p. m.

The first public appearance of the club will be made on the evening of February 16, in the Oliver theater. It is expected that the club will be well rounded into shape by that time.

On October 31, Columbia University celebrated its 150th anniversary. Alumni from all over the country were present and a celebration consisting of banquets, novel exercises and speech making occupied several days.

SHUT THE MEN OUT

The Girls Prefer to Practice Yells in Seclusion.

Billy Ramsey is Favored.—New Songs and Yells.

This morning at chapel time the girls of the university will meet in Memorial Hall to organize the much-heralded rooting squad. Men have been ostracised from the meeting, and only John Uhl and Billy Ramsey are expected to be present from the taboed sex. Mr. Ramsey is considered necessary to the formation of any rooting squad, and John is to chair the meeting.

Two girls for each class constitute a committee in charge of the meeting. They are, Misses Florence Parmelee and Mosaic Kimmel, '08, Minnie Swezey and Flossie Erford, '07, Jennie Whitmore and Grace Trigg, '06, Grace Coppock and Mary Harris, '05. Talks will be given by Mrs. Clapp and Mrs. Raymond, Miss Howell and Miss Pound. The following songs will be practiced.

Yell—O yaw, O yaw, O law,
They just came over from
—o—wa.
Yell—Paw! paw! paw!
Kaw! Kaw! Kaw!
Nee! See! Pizz! Boom A-h!

TIME—"HOT TIME."
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Nebraska's got the ball.
Rah! Ran! Rah!
Just watch the Hawkeyes fall,
When we hit that line
There'll be no line at all.
There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight.

"SCARLET AND CREAM."
I.
Sing to the colors that float in the light,
Hurrah for the Scarlet and Cream.
Scarlet, the hue of the roses so bright,
And pale as the lily's fair gleam.
Scarlet the east at the breaking of dawn,
And scarlet the west when the sun is gone.
Hail, hail to the colors that float in the light,
Hurrah for the Scarlet and Cream.

II.
Scarlet, the ruby, the jewel so rare
With colors so brilliant and true,
Pale as the pearl so bright and so fair,
And clear as the drop of the dew.
Bright are our colors, as fair as a dream.
Hurrah for Nebraska and Scarlet and Cream.
Hail! hail! to the colors that shine in the light
Hurrah for the Scarlet and Cream.

III.
Here's to the college who's colors we wear,
Here's to hearts that are true.
Hail! Alma Mater, Nebraska's so fair,
Hail to our colors too!
Garlands of Scarlet and Cream intertwine,
And hearts that are true and voices

combine
Hail! Hail! to the college whose colors we wear,
Hurrah for the Scarlet and cream.

Time "Here's to the Land which Gave Me Birth."
Here's to the team we love so well
Here's to our star and pride
Here's to the scores that much do tell
Here's to our fame so wide!
We'll show them all how to play football
With Booth behind to guide
Nineteen four will show some more
What Nebraska can do!

Tune, "Under the Anheuser Bush."
Talk about the teams of the vaunted Big Nine,
Praise their lightning plays and their strong beefy line,
There's a little squad that's the pride of our state,
You've seen them play and you know that they're great;
Often in a game when the fierce struggle's on,
Almost matched the teams, both in Science and brawn
If a moment comes when the play seems in doubt,
Watch and see—Cornhusker grit will win out.

Chorus.
Come, come, come help the boys to win,
Yell for the Scarlet and Cream—
Come, come stir up a joyous din,
Cheer our victorious team,
Hear our brave Uni band, (Ach du lieber Augustine)
Just shake the old grandstand, Yah!
Do, do wake and get some life in you,
Yell for the Scarlet and Cream.

BERGE MAKES PLEDGE.

Says He Will Treat Uni. Liberally if Elected.

Hon. George V. Berge, fusion candidate for governor, addressed a large audience at convocation yesterday morning. While his talk was wholly of a political nature, Mr. Berge was not at all partisan in his remarks. He declared, on the other hand, against partisanship in government, and asserted that the safety of the nation lay in the independent voter. He was of the opinion that the long continuance of any one party in power is against the safety of popular government and tends to narrow the limits of popular rights.

He spoke most highly of Joseph W. Folk of Missouri, and Governor La Follette of Wisconsin, asserting that he would vote for the election of either if he were a resident of his state.

Mr. Berge emphatically pledged himself to use his best efforts toward the building up of the university in case of his election. "If you elect me governor of Nebraska," he said, "I will do what I can to secure liberal appropriations for the university." He appreciated the place the university has come to fill in the welfare of the state, and desired to see it grow to much greater usefulness.

Mr. Berge's talk, though apparently extemporaneous, was scholarly and pleasing. He showed a close acquaintance with college life, and at the beginning of his talk, evinced a lively interest in the football team.

First Debate Held.

The first debate in Rhetoric 15 yesterday afternoon proved a lively one. W. L. Clark opened the affirmative case for the compulsory incorporation of national labor unions and E. M. Marvin replied for the negative. L. E. Legro followed for the affirmative and Mason Wheeler ended for the negative. The rebuttal was spirited. Professor Fogg said it was a better set of arguments than he expected for a starter. There were a number of visitors present.
