Editorial Remarks

Not enough men are showing up at basket ball practice. Tuesday evening not enough to worm four teams were out, and too many were on hand for all to be given a long try. If a few more men show up the chapel room will be opened and everybody can be in the game. Practice Tuesday night was good at first, but slowed up and was listless later on. There is good material showing up, but there is much more good material that is not getting out. To beat last years' record, and to win all the games that will be scheduled and the available basket ball material in school should turn out for practice. The chapel will be opened this afternoon if enough men report to make four teams. Practice at 4 p. m. this afternoon.

Tomorrow afternoon the Iowa team is expected to arrive in Lincoln. For several years an intense rivalry has existed between the Hawkeyes and the Cornhuskers, which has occasionally resulted in a lack of courtesy and hospitality to the teams of either university while visiting the other. The Ne-

Our Clothing is Talked About

Because it is superior to that found in other stores at the same price—because it meets the most exacting requirements of men who know what constitutes high class clothing—because it fits and looks as well as the products of the best custom tailors.

Goodness is stamped all over our Suits and Overcoats at $10, $12.50 and $15

Turn on the searchlights of investigation, you will not find any skimping or inferior tailoring.

Our $18, $20, $22.50 and $25

lines of Suits and Overcoats show unmistakable signs of pains-taking effort by weaver, cutter and tailor. You will look in vain for a single imperfection in these garments and the immensity of the assortment affords you greatest possible scope for selection.

GOOD CLOTHES MERCHANTS

CHANCELLOR HONORED. Dr. Andrews Chosen President of Educational Association.

Word has been received at the university that at the meeting of the association of presidents of agricultural colleges and state universities which has been held in Des Moines this week, Chancellor Andrews was chosen president of the association. The honor is no inconsiderable one, in as much as the association is one of the most influential educational organizations in the country.

Other officers were:
Vice presidents—William L. Prather of the University of Texas, and United States Commissioner of Education William T. Harris.
Secretary and treasurer—President George T. Fallows of the University of Maine.

The next place of meeting will probably be Washington, D. C. Members of the association expressed sentiment that there might profitably be a closer union between the state university association and that of the agricultural

Debating Club Meeting.

The students debating club will meet in Union hall next Saturday evening to discuss the following political question, "Resolved, That the United States should make a formal pledge to the Filipinos asserting that it will eventually grant them independence on terms similar to those granted the Cubans." The question in substance is taken from the letter of acceptance of Judge Parker and concurs in his views. The opposing sides in the argument are given to adherents of the different political faiths, and it promises to be a straight partisan discussion.

The prosperous condition of the club is a source of much satisfaction to the members who have by labored efforts reared it to its present state of interest, and this question chosen at the present time will probably aid materially as a drawing card.

HOMESEEKERS ROUND TRIP RATES.

There are thousands of acres of valuable Farm and Mineral Lands in the west that can be had for a song. Why not go west, select a home, and enjoy the prosperity and good fortune and contentment which the West affords you. The vast territory on the Union Pacific and connecting lines is a country of wonderful resources. The Homeseekers' rates offered by the UNION PACIFIC afford you opportunity of visiting the West and satisfying yourself. braskan believes this spirit is not strongly in evidence this year, but in order to fully demonstrate the fact, a large crowd should be on hand at the depot to welcome the Iowans to the university. While we intend to defeat them in the game, their visit in Lincoln should be one they will remember with pleasure in the future.
