In Society

The Alpha Theta Chi will give a dancing party at Walsh Hall, Nov. 23d.

Miss Ada Winkler has returned from her home in Glenwood, Iowa.

The German club was entertained on Thursday evening by Misses Wise and Horning at 1724 Jackson St.

The English club will meet this evening with Miss Hosc and Miss Miller in the women's building. Those on the program are Miss Birchall, Miss Miller and Miss Stettin.

The Delta Upsilon gave a large dancing party last evening at the fraternity house. Fraternity colors, banners and cut flowers formed tasty decorations.

Preparations are being made by most of the fraternities and sororities to entertain visitors from out of town for the Thanksgiving game. Dancing parties, dinners and all manner of informals are being planned.

A large number of university girls attended the faculty reception held in the rest rooms. The affair was in the hands of Mrs. Barbour. Assisting her were Misses Butler, Kormeyer, Redford, Compton and Mrs. Raymond.

In honor of her sister Miss Zora Fitzgerald of Omaha, Miss Pearl Fitzgerald entertained informally last Saturday evening. Her guests were: Misses Vivian Lee, Nell Ensor, Nell Davey, Mary McIntosh, Helen Glick, Elsie Stevenson, Mabel Cramer, Margaret Poster and Mary Breckenridge of Omaha.

GOOD TIME PROMISED.

Stag Reception at Farm Will Prove Attractive.

Preparations have been completed and assurances of a good time at the stag reception at the state farm, has been made doubly sure. Tonight a good sized crowd of university men will leave Twelfth and O on the 7:15 car, ready for a good old fashioned time "down on the farm." The social committee has something good in the line of refreshments; the program will be up-to-date.

The function has been arranged with the idea of getting the farm students acquainted with each other and also for the purpose of bringing agricultural students and those of other colleges together in a social way. University men who are but slightly acquainted, are urged to accept this first-class opportunity of meeting other men. Given under auspices of Y. M. C. A.

In the experiment station Professor Bessey is sending out a list of inquiries in regard to the diseases of plants that have been prevalent this year. They include diseases of farm crops, garden vegetables, fruits and fruit trees, forest and ornamental trees, and ornamental flowering plants. When the replies come in they will be tabulated for use in a report to be made to the United States department of agriculture.
