DR. FLING ON "EVERYMAN"

Interesting Talk on Old Play at Chapel.

Yesterday morning at convocation, Dr. Fling gave a comprehensive talk on "Everyman," which is to be produced at the Oliver theatre this evening under the auspices of the Dramatic club. He described the play as one EUGENE STOCKDALE as "Goods and Riches." of historical, educational and religious importance. It was written in the middle ages, he said, for the express purpose of converting people to the Christian faith.

Dr. Fling saw the play in St. Louis and was much impressed by it. He urged a large attendance this evening, stating that it might be a long time before the opportunity to see the production would again present itself.

Roller skating at the Auditorium is still all the go, and on the new hardwood floor, with a pair of Richardson's ball-bearing skates you can have a very enjoyable afternoon or evening. Everything high class and the very best.

Special attention to watch and jewelry repairing. E. Fleming, 1211 O street.
