COMMITTEE.

Mr. Harold E. Monser will address all girls in Memorial hall on Sunday at 3 p. m. His subject will be "20th Century Woman. Her Place and Power."

Those taking Geology I—Initial from A through to K, will meet in the geological laboratory this morning. From L to Z write up complete notes on reading in Le Conte.

There will be a meeting of the inter-class athletic committee in the Y. M. C. A. room this morning at 11 o'clock. Every representative of every class should be present as important business is to be transacted.

It is very much desired by the committee in charge of the Cornhusker banquet, which will be held at the Lindell next Monday, that those intending to go, purchase their tickets at the earliest possible moment, in order that exact arrangements may be made. Tickets will be on sale only a limited time.

Letter From "Jack."

Let us give three cheers for our football team, the pride and glory of our scarlet and cream; although daunted at first, was determined to fight, to defeat Illinois and regain the honors for our grand Uni.; so take courage boys, now basket ball has begun, and keep up the honors the track men have won, go to work with a vim that will bring noble victory to our basket ball team.
JACK BEST.

Old Uni. Man Married.

Tuesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, at 1821 Prospect street, Mr. W. Dwight Pierce, '03, was married to Miss Clara Virginia Loomis. They left yesterday for Washington, D. C., where they will make their home.

Mr. Pierce has a host of friends in the university, and many of them were in attendance at the ceremony. A reception followed, at which the relatives and close friends of the couple were present. The rooms were handsomely decorated, and exquisite refreshments were served.

The Cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. met with Misses Goldena Denny and Morgan, Monday evening from 6 to 8. Mrs. Denny served a delicious supper, after which the girls held a short prayer service in the dainty suite of the Misses Morgan.

Professor Bessey has just finished a report on the European Forests, based upon his observations and studies made last year in different parts of Europe. It is to be sent to the United States Bureau of Forestry in Washington.

The battalion at the state farm is now in uniform. Company "E" received guns Tuesday evening, and Co. "F" last evening.
