Campus Gleanings

H. C. Jensen, '28, is pledged to Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Harry Dildine, of Kearney, is visiting at the D. U. house this week.

C. D. Slaughter was called to Omaha yesterday by the illness of his mother.

Mr. Krogesiek has left school on account of illness. He will probably return in a short time.

Roscoe B. Davidson, Freshman Law of last year, is now working for the E. & M. in Omaha.

P. R. Jones received a severe injury to his ankle while at basket ball practice yesterday morning.

The class in English Literature 5, under Professor Stuff, began work in George Meredith yesterday.

Miss Pauline Busch stopped off in Lincoln between trains yesterday on her way home from Arkansas.

Professor Fossler went to Clearwater Friday to deliver an address on "Vacation Rambles in Europe," at that place.

The thesis of Gustav Elmer has recently been received for correction and will appear next month in The Physiological Review.

Professor Barthom will be delayed in St. Louis for about a week, taking care of Nebraska's mining exhibit at the exposition.

The Sophomore class football will be raffled off among the members of the class team today, and the proceeds used to pay the expenses of photographs of the team.

Dr. G. E. Coadra will give a lantern lecture before the teachers of the city Saturday afternoon in the chapel. The lecture will be on the subject of "The Physiographic Regions of the United States."

As soon as the new stadium at Harvard is completed, Harvard students will have free admittance to all the athletic contests. Now it costs a student $6 or $8 to see the athletic contests. When the change is brought about the association will be deprived of a large sum of money, but it is believed that the advancement in the spirit of amateurism and democracy in the athletics of Harvard will sufficiently make up for the financial loss.

Can you skate?
Ever try roller skating?
If not, come down some evening and try; if you do skate, you will appreciate the efforts of the management in providing this great sport for the people of Lincoln. The Auditorium Roller Skating Rink has a new hardwood floor and is equipped with Richardson ball-bearing skates. Admission afternoon, ladies free—evening ladies 15c, cents 20c. Rent of skates 20c.

The shower baths in the men's gymnasium are giving a great deal of trouble, owing to the unequal distribution of hot and cold water.

Special attention to watch and jewelry repairing. E. Fleming, 1211 O street.

Oyster stew 25 cents at Cameron's new Restaurant, 119 South 12th.

Union Shining Parlors. Shine, 5c. Chairs for ladies. 1018 O street.
