Announcements

Those who have ordered Sophomore caps may obtain them at Miller & Paine's.

NOTICE Party taking overcoat from Nebraska hall is known. Return to hall at once or expect trouble.

LOST—Friday morning on the campus, a brooch set with pearls. Return to registrar's office.

All persons desiring positions as high school or grade teachers, are requested to see Mrs. Clark at once.

Christmas vacation begins Wednesday, December 21, 6 p. m.; ends Wednesday, January 1, 8 a. m. Rates on all railroads.

All who wish to secure teachers' certificates at the mid-winter commencement should notify the chairman of the teachers' committee at once.

All Seniors must have their pictures taken at Townsend's by Saturday in order to get them into the Senior Annual. COMMITTEE.

Mr. Harold E. Mouser will address all girls in Memorial hall on Sunday at 3 p. m. His subject will be "20th Century Woman, Her Place and Power."

There will be a meeting of the inter-class athletic committee in the Y. M. C. A. room Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Every representative of every class should be present as important business is to be transacted.

By the recent action of the Ministers' association Sunday, December 11th, is set apart as Prison Sunday. In the First Baptist, the pastor, Rev. Samuel Zane Batten, will preach a sermon in the morning on "The Causes and Cure of Crime." All students of Social Science are especially invited. Service at 10:30.

It is very much desired by the committee in charge of the Cornhusker banquet, which will be held at the Lincoln next Monday, that those intending to go, purchase their tickets at the earliest possible moment, in order that exact arrangements may be made. Tickets will be on sale only a limited time.

The usual Glee club rehearsal will be held at 7 p. m. this evening in U166. There are still vacant places in the bass, and as the season is getting on, and new pieces are being learned, any applicants for positions in either first or second bass should hand in their names to Director Eames or Manager Williams at once.

Dean Bessey asks every Senior in the Industrial college who intends to graduate in February to see him as soon as possible, preferably during the "dean's hour," from 11:30 to 12, in room 107 University hall. For those who cannot come at that time, Dean Bessey will confer with them in his office in room 110 Nebraska hall. Bring your record (credit) books.

Pictures framed and unframed, in Pastel, Oils, Water Colors, etc., etc., will be sold at the Lincoln Book Store Auction this week.

Rent a Remington at student rate and keep your notes in good form. Office—Corner of Oliver Theatre Bldg
