"MESSIAH" TOMORROW

The Annual Rendition by the University Chorus.

The Annual rendition of the "Messiah," which has come to be such an enjoyable feature of Mrs. Raymond's work in the University, will be given tomorrow morning at convocation. The chorus has been working hard and faithfully under Mrs. Raymond, and they will ably support the soloists, who are the very best, as their names prove.

Selections.
Comfort ye my people
Ev'ry Valley

Chorus—And the glory of the Lord

Behold a Virgin shall conceive
O Thou that tellest glad tidings

For behold darkness
The people that walked in darkness

Pastoral Symphony

There were shepherds
And lo! the Angel of the Lord
And the Angel said unto them
And suddenly there was

Chorus—Glory to God

Then shall the eyes of the blind
He shall feed His flock
Come unto Him

Chorus—Hallelujah!

Soloists—Miss Grace Cutter, Mr. Everett B. Carder, Mr. B. B. Gillespie, Miss Stella Rice—Organist.

Miss Edith Burlingrin—Pianist.
Mrs. Carrie B. Raymond—Director.
String orchestra.

The Wednesday 11:30 classes will not begin until the close of the "Messiah" program.

All who are to take part in the "Messiah" are requested to be in their places on the platform a little before 11 o'clock.

Yesterday evening the candidates for the inter-state debating squad met with Professor Fogg to receive general directions regarding preparation for the preliminary debates which will be held in the near future to choose Nebraska's representatives in the inter-collegiate debates. Suggestions were given looking toward order and system in the collection and arrangement of material. Several changes over the system of previous years have been inaugurated this season.

Unusual interest is exhibited in the debates this year. Already about thirty students have signified their intention of entering the preliminaries and it is expected that this number will be considerably swelled in the course of a few days.

Considerable interest was aroused among the law students over the first jury trial of the year, held yesterday afternoon. The trial was called at 10 a. m. Saturday morning, but because of the failure of witnesses to appear, was postponed until Monday afternoon. The court was presided over by Roscoe J. Anderson as judge. Poepisil and Lundin counselled for the plaintiff and Barton and Gibbs were the counsels for the defendant.
