In Other Colleges

Chicago sings its alma mater song each morning at the close of chapel.
 A graduate of the class of '51, Harvard, has recently left $250,000 to his alma mater, placing no restrictions upon its expenditure.
 Harvard and the University of Chicago are advocating the building of new ice skating rinks. Ice hockey will be played at the latter school this winter for the first time.
 Association football is to be introduced at California soon. Coaches declare this form of exercise unsurpassed as a developer of breathing powers and endurance.
 The faculty at the University of Chicago has barred from participating in athletics fifteen freshmen registered in that institution on account of delinquencies. This will keep many good baseball and track men out.

OFFICERS' HOP.

The committee in charge of the Officers' Hop has decided upon Friday, Feb. 3d, as the date for the hop to be given. It will be held at Fraternity Hall, and everything possible is being done to make the affair an enjoyable one. W. C. Ramsey is chairman and Ed. Adams will be master of ceremonies.

CHECK ROOM OPEN.

The Men's Check Room has been reopened in the basement of U Hall where it has been for some time past. Attendants will be on hand all day to receive and check articles.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY.

Engineering Society meets Wednesday evening at 7:30 in M. A. 211. Mr. T. M. Brockway will speak on the new concrete dam recently completed at Beatrice.
