Mass Meeting Discusses Y. W. C. A. Pledge.

A Considerable Amount is Yet to be Secured.

About one hundred and seventy-five girls assembled in Memorial hall yesterday morning at chapel time to arouse enthusiasm and make an attempt to make up the remaining one hundred and fifty dollars of the Y. W. C. A. pledge to the Temple fund. Miss Brewster presided over the meeting. Chancellor Andrews, Professor Wyer and Miss Howell had been asked to address the meeting and all made short talks. Professor Wyer was first called for and stated that between $1100 and $1200 had been raised and considered it a pity that they had as yet been unable to raise the entire pledge. He stated that several of the '04 and '05 members of the Y. W. C. A. had pledged and raised fifty dollars each. He told of instances where some of the members had secured work down town to make the money to pay their pledge.

The Chancellor considered that words could not express the use and value that the building would be to the University. He stated that the Y. W. C. A. was a powerful influence in the University for the good and the uplifting of the young women and wished it to continue to increase its work.

Miss Howell discussed the ascetic side of the question and the prospects of the permanent home, for the association that the new building would provide. A special appeal was made to the freshmen girls who will be here to enjoy the benefits of the new quarters that the building will furnish.

During the time that remained Professor Wyer gave a "black board" talk. Ninety-two dollars were raised in five minutes.

Anyone desiring to aid the Y. W. C. A. in making up the rest of the pledge should see Miss Brewster or Miss Withers.

Baker Uni. Saturday.

Saturday evening the 'varsity will line up against Baker University for a game of basketball. This will prove to be a very fast game as this University is playing good ball this year. After the game there will be a dance, music being furnished by Quick's four piece orchestra. The game will begin at 8:00 p. m. promptly so the entire program may be carried out.

The price of admission will be 25 cents and 35 cents and tickets are on sale at the Co-op.

New Students.

Fifty-four new students registered in the University for work during the second semester. The registration cards distribute this number as follows: College of Literature 27, Industrial 11, Law 8, Medic 4, Fine Arts 2, Domestic Science 1, Graduate 1, making the total fifty-four.

GIRLS' TOURNAMENT

Inter-Class Championship to be Settled.

The third annual girls' inter-class basketball tournament will take place this afternoon. The exercises will commence at two and last until four. Intense excitement is expected to be displayed by the supporters of the various teams.

The different class leaders have prepared class yells and songs and it is rumored that the renowned Ladies' Boston Band will be present to give life to the meeting. This band first entered into prominence in University life during the recent county fair held at the armory. Megaphones will be in order and every girl is requested to come out and lend their support.

The Senior team, which has won two years, expects to fight desperately to wrest the pennant from its rivals, the Juniors, who won the championship last year. The pennant is a beautiful silk emblem and worthy of the effort to be put forth by every team.

The lineup of the teams for the tournament this afternoon is as follows:

SENIORS.

Forwards—Minnie Jansa (captain), Adele Koch; Center, Alice Towne; Guards, Ruth Woodsman, May Thomas

JUNIORS.

Forwards—Pearl Archibald (captain), Marguerite Pillsbury; center, Ina Gittings; guards, Inis Everett, Nellie Miller.

SOPHOMORES.

Forwards—Lorraine Hempel (captain), Anna Zwonechek; center, Cecelia Foster; guards, Flossie Erford, Ima Briggs.

FRESHMEN.

Forwards—Mattie Woodworth, Nettie Stevenson; center, Thyrsa Stevens (captain); guards, Mossie Kimmel, Gertrude Friend.

The order of the matches will be: Seniors vs. Juniors, first half; Sophomores vs. Freshmen, first half; Seniors vs. Juniors, second-half; Sophomores vs. Freshmen, second half. After these games the finals between winning teams will be played for the championship. The length of the halves will be fifteen minutes. The officials of the afternoon will be Mrs. Clapp and Miss Pound. An admission of 10 cents will be charged.

The girls' tournament will be off the floor by 4 o'clock this afternoon so it will not interfere with track work and the men preparing for charter day.

Rosewater Speaks.

University students will be given a treat tonight in the address to be given by Mr. Andrew Rosewater under the auspices of the Engineering Society. Although the address is given for the engineers, the general public is invited to attend, and the lecture will in all probability be of interest to everybody. Mr. Rosewater is a master of the subject he expects to talk about, he having held the position of City Engineer of the city of Omaha for over twenty years. He has also been identified with the municipal engineering problems of most of the larger towns of Iowa and Nebraska and the western states, and on sewerage, paving and hydraulic enterprises he is an authority.

The engineers are particularly anxious to hear Mr. Rosewater on "Sewerage," as he has just finished the planning and construction of a new sanitary sewer in Omaha, which is of the new Septic tank order, and is something new to western engineers. It is hoped a large crowd will turn out to hear Mr. Rosewater, as it was with some difficulty that the engineers were enabled to bring him here. He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Professor Bessey is showing visitors a sample of a widely advertised instrument for showing the amount of moisture in the air, which he has found to be absolutely worthless. It is advertised as indispensable for schools and yet it has no value whatever. He pronounces it a fraud.

LAW MASS MEETING

Committee Report is Heard.—Another Appointed.

Dean Pound's Resignation Probably to Stand.

A mass meeting of all the law students was held yesterday at 11 a. m., in U 207 to hear the report of the committee appointed some time ago to wait on Dean Pound, of the law college, and ask him to reconsider his resignation. The committee reported that the resolutions, commending the able work of the Dean in building up the law school and expressing the earnest desire of the students that he should reconsider his resignation had been presented to Dr. Pound. The committee reported further that when asked to reconsider Dean Pound stated that he had made arrangements to enter into active practice and that although he would always do all that he could to better the law college he felt that he could not change his present plans to return to practice.

The sentiment of the meeting seemed to be that the law college was at present very poorly provided for and that this was one of the reasons for the resignation of their esteemed Dean. After considerable discussion S. E. Black moved that a committee of nine be appointed to devise some means of bettering the condition of the law college and that this committee be empowered to act as they thought best. Two amendments were proposed aiming to cut down the number of the committee but both were lost. The sentiment of the meeting seemed to be that this committee should wait upon the regents and do whatever was possible to secure a better supply of funds for the maintenance of the law school.

Chairman Lantz announced the following committee:

S. E. Black, chairman.
Fred Lundin.
George A. Lee.
W. C. Parriott.
Charles Ritchie.
L. P. Hewitt.
W. C. Ramsey.
F. W. Johnson.
James A. Clark.

The committee is composed of three students from each of the law classes.

Will Not Protest.

There has been some talk on the campus about disputing the game with the Omaha Y. M. C. A., but Dr. Clapp says nothing will be done. He states that the difficulty arose over a foul which he called, and for which referee Nelson would not credit the 'varsity team. Nelson held that several points had not been credited to Omaha previously on similar fouls as a reason for not allowing the point.

Convocation.

Tomorrow Convocation program will be of a unique character. The poem, "Enoch Arden," by Tennyson, with musical setting by Richard Strauss, will be given. Mrs. C. F. Ladd will be the reader with Miss Nellie Griggs at the piano.
