Campus Gleanings

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave a smoker Monday evening at the chapter house.

Sickness in Dr. Heald's family has prevented him from meeting some of his classes this week.

A good sized delegation will represent the Uni. Y. M. C. A. at the state convention to be held at Grand Island next week.

Vesper service, Memorial hall Sunday evening, seven o'clock. Address by Chancellor Andrews. All students urged to attend.

The annual banquet of the University Y. M. C. A. will begin promptly at 7:45 o'clock Friday, March 3rd. University men are urged to keep the date in mind.

Instructor Lane of the Physical Training Department is sick and unable to keep up his work this week. His classes are being conducted by Elliot Graves.

Professor Bessey reports seeing a robin on a tree on the campus Wednesday morning. The poor thing was evidently much surprised at finding so much snow on the ground.

Professor Bessey gave a special lecture Wednesday on the structure of diatoms, a peculiar kind of microscopic plant, especially common in the ocean, where they constitute the food of many animals.

University men and women are invited to attend the "Quiet Hour" service in Memorial hall Sunday morning at nine o'clock. Dean Chas. E. Bessey will speak. Miss Eleanor Andrews will sing.

Only a short time remains for the gymnasts to get in shape for the preliminaries. They take place Wednesday, Feb. 22, and all men expecting to try for a place are urged to come out for practice.

O. E. Sleske, H. M. Crawford and N. M. Barnes, members of the local chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, are to represent their chapter at the installation of a chapter of S. A. E. at the University of Iowa.

Word comes to the Y. M. C. A. that State Secretary J. P. Bailey of Omaha will be present at the annual banquet on the night of March 3. Mr. Bailey is well and favorably known to a large number of University men, and his genial character wins new friends wherever he goes.

Miss Mabel A. Hartzell, U. of N., '99, has gone to Lead City, S. D., to teach physics and chemistry in the public schools there. Miss Hartzell has been an instructor for two years in the Academy and has taught in the Lincoln Medical school and assisted as instructor in the University.

"The Quiet Hour Service" which will occur in Memorial Hall Sunday morning at 9 o'clock is for University men and women. At this meeting Miss Eleanor Andrews, well known in University musical circles, will sing a vocal number. Dean Bessey will speak. Students are urged to let nothing stand in the way of an attendance upon this helpful hour's service.

The girls of the Y. W. C. A. will give a reception complimentary to the Y. M. C. A. in the Art hall Tuesday evening, February 14. The following will act as patrons:

- Chancellor and Mrs. E. Benj. Andrews.
- Dr. and Mrs. Sherman.

Special Excursion to Omana. $1.10 for Round Trip.

Roller skating enthusiasts are arranging to have a special excursion to Omaha on Friday, February 17th, to attend the roller skating race between Miss Hellman of Lincoln and Mrs. Cuscaden of Omaha. A rate of $1.10 for the round trip has been secured and all who desire to take advantage should see the manager of the Auditorium Skating Rink at once. In the recent contest at Lincoln, Miss Hellman won, and the Lincoln supporters are confident of the ability of their representative to again show Omaha "how it is done."

Invitations are out for the second dancing party given by the young ladies of the University Women's building on Saturday evening, February 18. Several visitors from Omaha are expected for this occasion. Miss Mabel Clark will visit with Miss Pearl Fitzgerald. Miss Nell Ensor will entertain her sister, Miss Nalce Ensor, and Miss Minnie Hiller expects her sister, Miss Florence Hiller.

The beginning of class in elocution will give recitations every Wednesday morning. Members of the class will each have a turn to be upon the stand and go through the rigorous inspection of the instructor. These classes will be open to university students.
