It is probable that Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell and Pennsylvania will form an inter-collegiate wrestling league. Efforts are now being made to arouse interest in the sport and get out varsity teams at all of those colleges, with a view to making this sport a regular athletic feature in their winter schedules.

The students in Dendrology are to use a new "Manual of Trees of North America" which has been written by Professor Sargent of Harvard University. The copies of the manual have not come from the publishers as yet but are looked for in the near future. Professor Sargent is the author of the great work, the "Silva of North America," which was issued in fourteen quarto volumes, at twenty-five dollars a volume.
