FELLOWSHIP IN ECONOMICS.
Applicants for Fellowship in Economics at the University of Chicago should consult with Professor Taylor at once.

Prof. H. C. Swearingen, of the Department of Botany, is giving a course of lectures on the Mosses which is creating a great deal of interest in the class of advanced students taking it.

The Medical Society of the University will hold its next meeting on Friday, March 3, in M 301. Dr. Bolton of the Department of Psychology, will address the meeting on "What is Mind."

Rev. H. C. Swearingen of Lincoln will speak at convocation Wednesday on "The Strength and the Weakness of an Age of Criticism." Dr. Swearingen has spoken to the students on several former occasions and needs no introduction to a University audience.

On Friday W. S. Delano of Custer county, an old acquaintance of Professor Bessey's, called at the Botany rooms, in company with his brother. They attended one of the Professor's lectures, as both had studied botany when they were students in the college.

GRAND MASQUE CARNIVAL ON SKATES FRIDAY, MARCH 3.

Undoubtedly one of the most interesting and amusing events ever witnessed in Lincoln will be the masque carnival which will take place in the Auditorium Friday, March 3d. No one will be allowed on the floor except those who are masked. This is an entertainment which spectators will enjoy as much as the masquers. Spectators will be admitted to the gallery at the usual price. The grand march will take place at 9:30 at which time the masques will be removed. The following prizes will be awarded. First lady's most original costume, one pair nickel plate skates; second, lady's best comic costume, twenty session ticket. Gents, first, most original costume, one pair nickel plate skates; second, best comic costume, one twenty session ticket.
