Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

Owing to the interest aroused by Miss Easterday's coming, the place of the Sunday meeting has been changed from U 106 to the chapel, Memorial hall. Miss Ewen will sing and an excellent service is anticipated. Don't fail to attend Sunday, March 5, 1905.

On Saturday evening, March 11, the Dramatic Club will give two plays, "Miss Civilization" and "Mr. Bob," for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. temple fund. The cast is excellent and is under the special direction of Miss Howell. Anyone who does not see Patty "Cats on the Brain" is sure to regret it. Be sure to come. Memorial hall, Saturday evening, March 11, 1905.

Song Cycle,

An unusually large audience of students and outsiders listened to the musical program given at Convocation yesterday. The program consisted of a song cycle, a pretty idyl of Arcadia entitled, "Captive Memories," composed by the favorite writer, Ethelbert Nevin. Miss Alice Howell read the connecting links of the parts which were rendered by the following:

Miss Eleanor Raymond, soprano.
Miss Grace Cutter, alto.
Mr. George Johnston, tenor.
Mr. B. B. Gillespie, bass.

The program was a novelty in the line of Convocation music and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present.

The Amateur Athletic union has been notified that the New England association has suspended the Yale University basketball team. The action was taken because of the fact that the collegians had played the team of East Hampton, Mass., which is claimed to be a semi-professional five. This bars the Yale players from all amateur competitions held under the Amateur Athletic union throughout the United States.
