Editorial Remarks

With each recurring baseball season comes as regularly the small boy and his ball swiping propensities. For years the baseball management has threatened to deal severely with the small culprits, but each year finds the nuisance growing instead of abating, and no action taken against the offenders.
More balls are stolen each succeeding season than were taken the preceding year, and the loss of balls dently thought of the enjoyment of those attending first, and neglected their own pockets entirely, which is the way things should be. Every possible arrangement had been made which those in charge were at all warranted in making and the only deplorable feature connected with the Non-Com hop of 1905 is that it was not better attended. That the dance, given at a price reduced from that of other like affairs, was conducted so admirably, reflects nothing but credit upon members of the committee. They are to be congratulated.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.
Last Saturday afternoon the Y. W.
C. A. held its annual meeting in the parlor of the University Woman's building. The meeting opened with a song by Miss Elinor Andrews which was followed by the annual reports of the retiring cabinet members which were all excellent. After a few words by the retiring president Miss Eva Cooper, the following officers for the coming year were installed, the regular service being used.

President—Miss Pearl Archibald.
Vice President—Miss Ethel Kenrich.
Treasurer—Miss Myrtle Kauffman.
Secretary—Miss Lillian Bennet.
Mrs. Easterday, a member of the American committee, was the speaker at the Sunday afternoon meeting. Mrs.
Easterday has been active in Y. W. C.
A. work for many years, being a member of the second Y. W. C. A. ever organized. She based her talk upon Isa.
55:6. "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found," bringing out the importance of seeking the Lord in youth, in order to live an effective Christian life.
Miss Laura Ewen sang.

Miss Olive Griffith, one of our volunteers, who graduated at the mid-winter commencement, has already been appointed to a field. She will be sent to China by the First Christian church of this city.

Don't forget about the plays which the Dramatic Club is giving for the benefit of our temple fund next Saturday evening, March 11. Every one turn out and find out who "Mr. Bob" really is. Admission 25c.

The following girls will lead noon meetings this week:
Monday—Miss Withers.
Tuesday—Miss Howard.
Wednesday—Miss Coppock.
Thursday—Miss Trigg.
Friday—Miss Greenwald.

No. 2 of Vol. 1 of Bothsides, the new debating journal, published at Harvard University, has been received. It con-stolen alone makes quite an item in any manager's account, too great an item to be overlooked. The time to correct existing conditions is right now, at the very beginning of the season. Halfway measures will not suffice. Severe means should be resorted to, and the first small boy caught stealing should be dealt with in a manner which will clearly show that the management is in earnest. One such example is worth a dozen milder ones, and should be sufficient to stop the thefts.

If all University dances were given in the manner in which the Non-Com hop was conducted Friday night there would not be so much complaint about the individual graft system. The committee in charge of this dance evitains photographs of Chicago and Brown debating teams, together with an outline of the Chicago-Minnesota and Brown-Dartmouth debates. The staff of Bothsides is given as follows:
