Campus Gleanings

A meeting of the Freshmen class has been called by President Swan for this morning at 11 a. m. in Memorial hall.

A squad of thirty-five men from the Lincoln High are working out on the campus. So far they have done only the running and shot putting work.

Frank W. Lehmer, who spent some years in the University and afterwards completed his mining work at Golden, Colo., is engaged in mining in southern Mexico.

The commissioned officers of the battalion met after drill Tuesday and appointed a committee composed of the four captains and the major to look into and take steps toward eradicating certain existing conditions which hamper the most effective operation of the military department.

Dr. G. E. Condra, of the Department of Geology, spoke to the students of Lincoln High School yesterday morning in the interest of track athletics at that institution. Dr. Condra coached the athletic teams at the high school for several years, with the most successful results.

Judge C. B. Letteon of the supreme court, spoke before the Law students Monday night. His theme was on the art of presenting a case to the court and was pronounced by the large number of law students present to be a most practical and helpful address. Dr. Pound has arranged for informal talks every Monday evening of this semester. The speaker for next Monday has not been announced.
