Academy Notes.

The inclemency of the weather during the last few days has given the Academy baseball team a serious setback. The team has no place where practice may be held when the weather will not permit of outdoor work. The men have been going up against a losing proposition all of the season and this handicap has made the matter so much worse that the men on the team are now seriously considering giving up any further attempt at playing. All of the games played so far this season have been lost by a good margin.

The April number of the Academy News is being distributed this week. The issue contains articles by A. H. Swan, George G. Cleveland, Minnie Hanson, and Herbert G. Myers. Considerable space in the paper is devoted to the interest of Academy athletics. Mr. Swan in a well written article urges the Academy students to show a more enthusiastic spirit in support of the athletic teams, while Mr. Myers in an article of considerable length discusses the need of a more enthusiastic spirit and contends that the best remedy for the evils, which have characterized all attempts to get out teams at that institution, is the organization of an athletic board to have control of all athletic affairs at the Academy.
