The Girls' Social Hour club of the academy met this week with Miss Barbour. A musical program was given by members of the club. Misses Katherine Kimball, Eleonor Barbour and Helen Berger favored the meeting with musical selections.

An exceptionally fine musical program will be given this morning at Convocation. The University chorus has been working hard under Mrs. Raymond's instruction and the soloists are well known for their superior merits. The selections will be from the opera "Carmen."

Tonight the annual Freshman party will be given at Walsh hall. A program of eighteen regular and two extra numbers will be danced. Good music has been provided. The party though given by the Freshmen is an open affair, and members of other classes so desirign may enjoy the party. Tickets are $1.25.
