SOMBRERO IS OUT

'06 ANNUAL APPEARS PROMPTLY ON TIME.

Some Features the Best Yet—Other Portions of the Book Only Mediocre—On Sale at 11 a. m.

The long expected and much vaunted Sombrero has at last been presented to the public. On the whole it is one of the most representative University annuals ever put out here. The editors and managers on account of the long "graft" agitation were put severely to the test and one feels in view of the excellence of the book, that if there is any bonus they deserve it. The editors aimed to make the book one which would stand for the best of every phase of college life, and in a great measure they succeeded, for beside the printed representation, the get-up of the book itself shows considerable ability and a great deal of painstaking work.

The cover is the best which has ever been put upon a Nebraska publication, in neatness, quality, and durability. Its novelty and simplicity are a decided relief from the cloth bound books of the past with the inevitable and usually inartistic designs. The first fifty pages are filled with general information about the University, the section of the book which is conscientiously skipped the first day and not fully appreciated until a few days or weeks after the first reading. It is good and filled with "the things we all want to know"—but necessarily stereotyped. It contains a list of the members of the instructing body with a short history of the professional life of many of the most prominent members of the faculty. Then follows a short description of the University proper and all of its branches. Here the State Farm receives undue prominence, as it usually does.

The class representation is about as usual. The Law section is headed with an excellent article by Dr. Pound. The arrangement of the individual pictures and the character of the write-ups, both here and in the Junior class proper are a decided disappointment. The write-ups are trite and don't offer much in either information or humor and the pictures are just as they always have been both in style and arrangement. One lonely Wesleyan Junior will be rather surprised to find that he is a student at "the State." The general class representation is very good. The department of athletics is excellent. The pictures and write-ups are good and the kodak features are especially attractive. The literary department as such is almost absent. It is not dignified with a title page and consists of only one story and a few verses. The excellent articles on various subjects of University interest which are scattered through the book almost make up for this deficiency however. They are all snappy and to the point.

It is on the whole a very good thing that a little admonition about "getting sore" was put on the second page of the josh department. Many of the jokes are extremely clever and almost all are apt, but the cudgels are wielded even more vigorously than in the Senior Book. The faculty roasts in the latter are certainly avenged by the wholesale slaughter of the Seniors upon the pages of the Sombrero. Some of the joshes are unnecessarily bitter—and there is quite a little "padding" but on the other hand many long felt wants are filled. The cartoons are very few in number and are perhaps the weakest feature.

Altogether, the book is unusually good. The best things about it are its splendid "get up," the title pages and full page drawings by Harrison and Hadley—and the snap shots taken on the campus.

Latin Club.

The last meeting of the Latin Club for this semester was held Tuesday evening in the parlors of the Woman's University building. After some preliminary business, an interesting program was given. Miss Allene McEachron read a most creditable paper on the "Roman Games." A short discussion and comment by Professor Barber followed.

The next number was a paper by Mr. Arthur Marsh on "Current Events." Mr. Marsh was unable to be present and his paper was read by Mr. Frank Peterson.

The most important number on the program was the report by Professor Barber of the recent classical conference in Chicago, May 6 and 7. Professor Barber was one of the leading movers at the conference. A national organization was effected to which belong many teachers of Greek and Latin from about twenty-two states. Professor Barber's report was very interesting and much enjoyed by all.

The first game among the academic class baseball teams will be played at 2 p. m. today on the campus, between the Seniors and Juniors.

The Law College team has succeeded in defeating both the Freshman and Sophomore teams but no line can be drawn on either of the teams which contend this afternoon.

Berge to Speak.

An exceptionally strong address is in store for University men next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Art Hall. Hon. George W. Berge, who needs no introduction to a Nebraska audience, will speak on the practical and interesting theme "Citizenship." Mr. Berge is a college man and his experience as a man of affairs insures a large audience of representative college men. The special music will be also of the highest order. Miss Maud Kendall, who delighted the great audiences at the Oliver last winter, will sing in her effective and pleasing way. This meeting will begin promptly at 3 o'clock and close promptly at 4.

Carl W. Dirks, '02 who has been visiting at the Beta house and attending the Beta festivities of the past week, is located with a large mercantile house in Boise City, Idaho.

HAVENS, STATES, MANNING, BURRUSS AND KNODE WIN.

Excellent Time Made in Dashes—Final Entries for Each Event Cannot Yet Be Determined.

Dr. Clapp and his track men fled away to the Fair grounds yesterday afternoon for practice and try outs in some of the events. The afternoon was ideal and as a result some excellent time was made in the events. The men were getting use to the track before the events Saturday, when they expect to give Colorado a thorough study of heel motions in the track events.

Manning, States and Havens appeared for the first time in the try-outs, and all made an excellent showing in their respective events. Manning won the 440 and gave Burruss the race of his life for first place in the 220. These men, backed by Wallace, should give any other trio of University sprinters in the West a good race for first honors. States ran his usual race in the mile, and carried off first place with comparative ease. Havens was the best in the two-mile, although the race was not run as fast as he usually runs.

The events Saturday will commence at 2:30 p. m. at the Fair grounds. The Lincoln Traction company have consented to run their best cars to the grounds for an hour before and until the crowd is cared for after the meet. Every accommodation for a large crowd has been made, and the events of the afternoon surely will furnish enough excitement for the crowd.

The result of yesterday afternoon tryouts is as follows:

220 dash—Burruss, first; Manning, second; Wallace, third.

440 dash—Manning, first; Dana, second; C. L. Meyer, third.

Mile run—States, first; Morgan, second.

Two-mile run—Havens, first; Alden, second; Thiesen, third.

High jump—Knode, first, Meyer, second; Wallace, third.

No Band Informal.

There will be no band informal Saturday evening. No good music could be procured for that night and the management would be content with the best only. The large number attending the informal last Friday, and the numerous requests for another caused those in charge to make arrangements for one Saturday, but arrangements had to be stopped for the reason given.

There will be no more band informals this year.

Pedagogical Club.

The last meeting for the year of the Pedagogical Club will be held this evening at 8 in U 106. A number of five-minute talks will be made by the members of the University faculty. The short talks by the University professors will all be to the point and will be very interesting and instructive. This being the last meeting, a full attendance is desired.
