Editorial Remarks

The defeat of the Hawkeye men by Cassady and Schribner again demonstrates Nebraska's ability in athletics. Let the good work continue. The next severe test will come Friday when the Varsity track team does its first stunts in the preliminaries at the conference meet in Chicago. Nebraska will send a strong delegation to Chicago and while first place seems

Stockholders Meet.

The stockholders of the Daily Nebraskan held a meeting Monday for the annual election of the Board of Directors and chose Professors Foss-ler and Stout from the faculty, Mr.
H. P. Leavitt, of Omaha, from the Alumni, and Messrs. Schreiber and Cramer from the student body. The corporation constitution states that two members shall be chosen from the faculty stockholders, two from the students holding stock and the fifth from the Alumni of the University.

Lincoln Academy Notes.

The girls of the basketball team were invited by Miss Mitchell to her home Saturday afternoon and had a very delightful afternoon. They had had their pictures taken previously and were rejoicing over the splendid proofs.

Professor Hodgman completed his visit as inspector last week by calling on the high schools of Arlington, West Point, Stanton, Wisner and Hooper.
However, his work is by no means over as his correspondence has piled up and the summer school work must be attended to.

The principal of the Academy wishes to secure the names of young people over the state who have not yet finished their high school work.
Anyone knowing of one or more such young people will confer a favor upon him if they will hand him their names.

There will be several changes in the teaching force next year caused by the departure of two of the members from the city. Mr. George A.
Lee has been elected as teacher of rhetoric in the Beatrice high school.
Mr. John J. Fossler completes his medical work at the University and goes to Omaha or elsewhere to continue his work.

The closing reception at the Academy given by Professor and Mrs.
Hodgman will occur Friday evening at their residence, 1426 L street. The delay in the date of the reception has been caused by the long illness of Mrs.
Hodgman. The principal wishes to extend a cordial invitation to all students in any way connected with the Academy to be present on that evening. He promises a royal good social time for all who attend.

Thursday afternoon was given up to a general picnic and a large number spent the afternoon and early evening at the park. The boats were in excellent condition and were kept filled almost all the time. It was the first time that some of the girls had ever been on the water and they certainly enjoyed it. The baseball game was witnessed by quite a number of spectators who cheered every hit lus-tily, especially in the latter part of the game when the girls scored several runs. The supper itself was eaten by everyone in a way to testify their appreciation of the good things provided by the girls. All joined in the games enthusiastically and seemed to enjoy the excitement of "cat and rat" especially. The evening closed with impromptu speaking by some of the orators and a mile race by the track team. The faculty were represented at the picnic by three members only, the others being kept away by pressure of work.

Why don't you go down to Sanderson's and get a swell pair of shoes?

IF IT'S "GRAY" IT'S RIGHT

This is a "gray season" in Men's Clothes. So great is the demand, manufacturers can hardly produce them fast enough. And could you imagine a more genteel, cool suit for summer?
We received a new shipment Saturday and our showing of "grays" in fine worsted fabrics is very comprehensive.

Suits $15, $18, $20 and $25.00.
