BIG MASS MEETING

ENTHUSIASTIC SPEECHES BY PROMINENT PROFESSORS.

Glee Club Trip and Benefits to Be Derived Therefrom Discussed in Detail.

A large meeting of the students was held yesterday morning in Memorial Hall at chapel time. While the meeting lacked in enthusiasm somewhat at the start, yet as the meeting progressed the students became more enthusiastic and at the close of the meeting the success of the Glee Club trip was surely insured, so far as the students were concerned. The speeches made by the speakers were very optimistic and enthusiastic. At the end of the meeting it was realized as never before that the Glee Club was a part of the University, and that the students should make it a part of them.

On account of the absence of Chancellor Andrews, Dr. Pound took charge of the meeting. After making some very fitting remarks and announcing the object of the meeting, he introduced Professor Kimball, the director of the University School of Music. Director Kimball's subject was "What a Glee Club Will Do for the University." He proceeded to show how Nebraska's reputation and influence would be extended by the trip, and that in time this Glee Club would become as great an advertising medium for our University as the football team. Our successes through the Glee Club would be as signal as our victories on the grid-iron.

Professor Fogg then addressed the students in a very pleasing manner. He gave three distinct reasons why the Glee Club should receive the support of the professors and faculty. First, because there was no objection to the Glee Club as an advertising medium. It was a part of University life which showed culture and refinement. Second, it should be supported because it promoted the esthetic side of University life. It brought out in the students the taste for the fine arts. Third, for it was a true representative of the University and a representative of which all should be proud.

Gillespie, who is to have charge of the club this year, then told of the plans for the work. He outlined in detail the mode of procedure in selecting men. One thing that was gratifying was the number of men that had reported and the quality of the men's voices who have as yet tried out. Mr. Gillespie will have as assistant in the work Mr. Leon De Witt Niles, who will have charge of the Mandolin and Guitar Club.

Mr. Leon De Witt Niles is an experienced mandolin and guitar instructor and director. Mr. Niles is an exponent of the true Italian method of right hand and plectrum mechanism, having studied under Signor Tomaso, the acknowledged mandolin authority. He is a member of the American Guild of Mandolinists and Guitarists, and special examiner for the State of Nebraska for applicants in the Guild. He was formerly located at Cedar Rapids, Ia., having charge of the Mandolin and Guitar department at the College of Music and for a number of years head of the Mandolin and Guitar department at Cornell College, Mt. Vernon. Also director of numerous clubs and lead of the Niles Mandolin and Harp Orchestra, which won for itself an enviable reputation.

Last evening try-outs were held in first bass and tenor. Some twenty men were tried and proved to be excellent material, but some must be disappointed. On Wednesday evening twenty-seven men were given a trial in second bass and tenor. As there are over one hundred applicants, it will be the latter part of next week before the men will have all been given a trial. The men will then be thinned out until about forty are left. With this number Director Gillespie will start and select the best voices until he has the required number of voices. Mr. Gillespie is being assisted in the try-outs by Manager Dirks, Ed. Johnson, Carl Beghtol, Edgar Sprague and Louie Meyer, all of last year's club.

A call is issued asking for more applicants for first tenor and bass, also men for the guitar. Men, this is your chance, and if you realize what a good Glee and Mandolin Club means to the University you will lend your aid to the cause. It is not only going to help the University and Lincoln, but the entire state as well. Let us give the state of Nebraska a Glee and Mandolin Club that she will be proud to have represent her.

JUNIORS ELECT OFFICERS.

D. P. De Young Selected for the Presidency.

The Juniors led off the annual election contests yesterday morning. Almost 200 classmen gathered in the Chemistry Lecture Room at 11 o'clock, and from the interest manifested a lively contest for the presidency was anticipated. President Cramer called the class to order, and in the absence of the secretary, appointed Ray Findlay to act in that capacity. Nominations for president were immediately called for, but no one seemed anxious to respond, and after a few minutes' silence, the chair had to repeat his invitation. Sunderlin then rose and in a neat speech nominated D. P. De Young. A large number seemed anxious to second this nomination, thus testifying to Mr. De Young's popularity among his classmates.

Standeven then offered the name of Dale Drain, and a ballot was immediately taken. Someone suggested that all intruders be thrown out, and it immediately developed that several Junior Laws were in the room. This precipitated a discussion as to whether they were eligible to vote, and Standeven recalled the position taken by the Sophomores during the last interclass athletic board scrap, that the two classes should not be distinct, and so it was apparently decided that Junior Laws could vote.

Meanwhile the ballot had been taken and resulted: De Young, 90; Drain, 68. The meeting then adjourned.

Mr. De Young entered the University in 1903, and is enrolled in the regular college. He has been a very active partisan in class politics, and has been interested to some extent in debating work and societies. He is a member of the Palladian Society and of the Y. M. C. A. In 1903-4, and again in 1904-5, he was a member of the Nebraskan staff.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

Y. M. C. A. SEC'Y.

TO VISIT UNIVERSITY NEXT SATURDAY.

Mr. Chas. Hurrey, General Secretary of the College Association, to Address Students.

Among the influential men in college circles it must be admitted that Mr. Chas. D. Hurrey of Chicago occupies a very prominent place. For the past two years he has been one of the student representatives of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, and during that time he has won for himself an enviable reputation as a speaker to college men. He has general supervision of the Student Associations of the central western colleges and universities and is thus given an opportunity to learn student life as is true of very few men.

Mr. Hurrey is a young man, having graduated from the University of Michigan in the class of 1900. For two years after his graduation he was student-secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association in the University of Indiana, going from there to Michigan as State Student Secretary, which position he held until he was promoted to his present place of great responsibility. The great success of the Association movement among students has been due very largely to his efforts.

At the beginning of each college year Mr. Hurrey has more calls to address college men all through the west than he is in any way able to respond to. It is for this reason that the men of Nebraska should feel especially favored in having him so early in the season. It is Mr. Hurrey's plan to visit the largest and most important universities of his territory early in the college year and as a result of this plan Nebraska is very near the head of his schedule. He comes here directly from the University of Minnesota.

His address will be given in Art Hall of the Library building next Sunday, October 1st, at 3 o'clock. No charge will be made and every man should take this opportunity of hearing Mr. Hurrey, who is himself a typical college man, representing the best things in student life. Several Nebraska men are personally acquainted with Mr. Hurrey and they speak of him in the very highest terms of praise. His exact subject has not been learned, but it is known that his address will be along the line of the influence of the Bible in the life of a college man. The men of Nebraska should turn out en masse to hear him. Mr. Hurrey will probably remain in Lincoln two days in order to get acquainted with some of the men of this University. He has spent very little time here, but as a result of his short acquaintance he has several times stated that the spirit of Nebraska was hard to excel.

Wisconsin and Michigan are having an uphill fight in football this year. Affairs were never darker at these institutions.
