Mr. Hurrey's Visit.

A very good crowd of men turned out last Sunday in Art Hall to hear Mr. Chas. D. Hurrey, of Chicago, the student representative of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association. The subject of the address was "Tests of Heroism in American College Life." Mr. Hurrey spoke about forty-five minutes and throughout the address the men listened most intently to his words, which were especially applicable to college men. Out of his wide experience in traveling among college men, there came many interesting and inspiring incidents which showed how the manly Christian life is appealing to college men all through the country.

Mr. Hurrey will remain in Lincoln until Wednesday noon and during that time he will be glad to meet any of the Nebraska men in the Association rooms.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

Saturday evening, September 30, the Y. W. C. A. held their annual reception to all University women at the governor's mansion, which Governor and Mrs. Mickey kindly throw open for this purpose each year. In the receiving line were: Miss Archibald, president of the Y. W. C. A.; Miss Vibbard, the new General Secretary; Governor and Mrs. Mickey, Professor and Mrs. Fogg, Professor and Mrs. Hinman, Professor and Mrs. Ward, Professor and Mrs. Caldwell, Professor and Mrs. Barber, and Professor and Mrs. Johnson.

Punch was served in the dining-room by Misses Leota Lapp, Luella Agee and Jennie Woodring. A short program was given, consisting of a whistling solo by Miss Jones and a couple of recitations by Miss Verne Hall.

The attendance was the largest of any Y. W. C. A. reception to date, and all enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

The regular Sunday afternoon meeting was held in the chapel at 3 o'clock and took the form of a Bible Study Rally, led by the new General Secretary, Miss Vibbard. As each girl passed into the chapel she was given a carnation, a white if she had registered for Bible study, a red if she had not. Miss Barnes had charge of the meeting. Miss Laura Owen sang and then Miss Vibbard spoke on the need for Bible study. After she had finished, cards were passed to those who had not registered and the courses were explained.

Mr. Hurrey, the national Y. M. C. A. secretary, led the noon meeting Monday. The leaders for the remainder of the week are:

Tuesday—Viola Barnes.
 Thursday—Anna Stewart.
 Wednesday—Nora Davis.
 Friday—Louella Agee.
