THE NEW MUSEUM.

Now that plans are being discussed for the erection of the new museum provided for by the last legislature, and in view of the fact that the new building will be the first of a series, all of which must follow it in style and appearance, it is perhaps permissible to enter an objection against the present plan. According to the decision of the building committee, it seems probable that the new building will be constructed of the same material which is being put into the new administration building. This should call for a hearty protest from every one connected with the University, for of all the ugly buildings in Lincoln, the one now being constructed on the very front of the campus is certainly the tensions to being handsome than to put up a larger one which will probably be torn down as soon as the University is able to put up another in its stead. And if two more buildings are to be constructed on the same plans as the museum, we would rather have no museum at all than to have it built in the manner now intended.

Life Shortened by Athletics?

In answer to a recent article by President James of the University of Illinois, in which it was claimed that the life of the college man is shortened and his value as a business man lessened by his participation in athletics, Dr. William G. Anderson presents some strong arguments in an article published in the current number of a monthly magazine.

"The hostile criticism," says Dr. Anderson, "that athletes 'die young' has been so often made without definite refutation that it passes for truth among those who mistake rumor for fact. An investigation of the health and longevity of college athletes must be exhaustive to furnish trustworthy data.

"Realizing the importance of such statistics, Prof. Franklin B. Dexter, the librarian of Yale, has recently completed the task of collecting the records of 761 athletes who competed in intercollegiate events and won their 'Y's' on the eleven, the nine, the crew, and the track team between 1855 and 1904.
This material was gathered for a prominent life insurance company, and later given to the director of the gymnasium.
The main deductions are as follows:

"Of these 761 athletes, 51 have died since graduation. The causes were:
Consumption, 12; pneumonia, 4; drowning, 6; heart disease, 2; suicide, 2; war and accident, 3; died from unknown causes or disappeared, 10; from various diseases (fever, appendicitis, cancer, diphtheria, paresis, dissi-pation, etc.), 12.

Y. M. C. A. LUNCH

By special arrangements which the Y. M. C. A. has made with Mrs. Day, the Uni. people will have the opportunity of obtaining a 10-cent lunch on the campus. Lunches consist of sandwich, pie, cake and fruit. Each lunch is packed with special care in a carton and may be had at Y. M. C. A. rooms each day between 11 and 12:30.

prize winner. This is not due to the style of architecture, but to the material used in construction. Students returning from vacation and seeing the new building for the first time could not believe that it was the sober intention of the authorities to erect such an eye-sore on the campus, and everyone expressed the belief that there was going to be a veneer on the outside of the ugly brick in the wall.
No one will deny our assertion, that no such building is enough, and that the new museum should be constructed of something that will look a little better at least. The Physics Building isn't any model of beauty, but it is far ahead of the Administration Building, and we would like to see the museum built of the same material if nothing better can be procured. We realize that the state legislature is not particularly fond of the University, and is rather niggardly in its appropriations, but it is certainly better to erect a smaller building having some pre-

"Of these 51 men, 18 rowed, 16 played football, 11 were track athletes, and 6 played baseball. The ages of those who have died show these extremes and averages:

Sport.	Extremes of age.	Average ages.
Crew	20 to 68 years	41.7 years
Football	22 to 37 years	30.3 years Baseball	20 to 39 years	28.3 years Track	21 to 33 years	25.4 years

"Turning to the 710 living athletes; those who have passed 40 may be thus grouped: 113 men are between 40 and 49 years of age; 86 men are between 50 and 59 years of age; 22 men are between 60 and 69 years of age.

"Of the Yale athletes in their latter years, 14 are between 60 and 61, 1 is 65, 3 are 66, 1 is 67, 2 are 68, and 1 is 69. In brief, barring violent deaths, only 40 of these 761 Yale athletes, in a period of nearly 50 years, have been lost from the ranks of the living.

"I have been assured by a life insurance expert that college athletes, barring the track men, show a better average expectation of life than their non-athletic classmates, and much better than the general average of insured lives."

The honorary sophomore society at Tufts, Sword and Shield, has appointed a committee to confer with the senior society, Tower Cross, with the junior society, and with the executive board of the freshman class in regard to the abolishment of the flag rush between the two lower classes. In order to decide the right of the freshmen to fly their flags, it has been suggested that the freshmen be required to win a majority of the class athletic events this year.
