Westover Returns From Michigan.

John Westover, assistant coach, has returned from Ann Arbor, where he attended the Michigan-Vanderbilt game on Saturday. This game proved a victory for the former by a score of 18-0. Westover was Booth's special emissary to Ann Arbor to study Michigan's style of play.

Westover is of the firm opinion that Michigan will have to play a better article of ball and that faster if she takes the varsity into camp. Michigan played the game last Saturday in the same style that she intends to play it against Nebraska, that is, by steady and hard line bucking. This proved effective against the Vanderbilt team, but there will be a difference when they try this style of play on Nebraska. Michigan also tried two end runs, but were thrown back for a loss both times. Hammond is the star of the Michigan team and is their greatest ground gainer. Westover says that Michigan has a heavier team by ten pounds to each man than Nebraska. This will give them the advantage on line bucking, but the Nebraska back field is much faster and that should overbalance the heaviness of the Michigan line.

The football team went out to the state farm to practice last night, just the first squad going along. Secret practice will be the rule from now until the team leaves for Michigan. All the men are in excellent condition after the game with Knox, the soft field having saved them from any bruises. Weller has only one eye, but the other is looked for any day, and Captain Borg's injured leg is as good as ever.

Class football is having a hard time to get started. The Junior manager has issued a call for men, but they did not seem to materialize, and he kicked the ball around all by himself. The Sophomores have selected their football committee, but nothing has been done by them yet. The other classes have not even gotten this far, but President Trigg of the Senior class has promised to appoint her committees early this week, and the interclass athletic board will then get down to work and get things started.

Junior Law Meeting.

The Second-year law class met during the convocation hour yesterday morning in order to attend to the appointment of a couple of committees. The first business was to select a representative for the interclass athletic board, and Burt Johnson, the University champion gymnast, was chosen for that position. The Law Book was then discussed, and the class felt that they should have something to say about it, and accordingly a committee composed of Sawyer, Keyser, and Parriott was appointed to confer with the Senior class.

Much attention has been attracted during the last week by the beautiful display of Uni pennants, pillows and novelties which is shown in the Co-op window. The display showed to special advantage while the teachers' association was here, also the visitors who were in for Saturday's game. Such a display of Uni spirit is certainly commendable.

The Sophomore Hop committee met in the Chemistry Lecture room yesterday morning and selected Friday night, October 27th, as the date for the Sophomore Hop. As this is the first dance of the season this year, a large crowd will doubtlessly attend, although the excursion to Omaha to see the Creighton game is the next day. Richard Hunter is chairman, and Byron Eaton master of ceremonies.
