The Michigan-Vanderbilt Game.

The low score which Michigan was able to run up against Vanderbilt last Saturday has led many Nebraskans to imagine that Michigan was weaker than usual this year, and that we would have a comparatively easy time in keeping them from scoring. That this is a great mistake is shown by the fact that Vanderbilt did not make first down once, and only held Michigan three times. The following excerpts from the report of the game in the Michigan Daily will also serve to show the great game played by the Ann Arbor men:

In spite of the low score, Michigan yesterday played the best game of the season. The addition of Schulte, Schultz and Rheinschild did wonders in strengthening the line, and the few assaults that Vanderbilt made upon it were repulsed for no gain. While the team work was not all that could be desired, and often the backs were allowed to carry the ball with little or no assistance, yet there was a dash and vim displayed that stood in refreshing contrast to the dreary, perfunctory manner in which the plays were run off in Wednesday's game. Had the same line-up which played against Ohio Northern faced Vanderbilt yesterday, Michigan would certainly have gone down to inglorious defeat.

Never did Joe Curtis show to better advantage than yesterday. Whenever it was third down and three yards to gain Joe was called back and given the ball. Hurling his huge form in a headlong dive at the Vanderbilt line which stood like a stone wall, hurdling over the writhing heaps where the opposing lines struggled, staggering toward the opponents' goal line while four or five southerners clung to him in a frantic endeavor to bring him down, the big fellow was the only man on the Michigan team who was never stopped. Tom Hammond, too, played in old-time form. Time after time he dashed through Vanderbilt's line for gains and once he broke loose and ran thirty yards before Kyle, who was playing back for the Commodores, got him.

Football Game Saturday.

University students will not have to miss going to a football game next Saturday merely because the team will be playing Michigan that day, for a game will be played on the campus which will undoubtedly be far better than any of the early season games of the varsity. This will be the contest between the teams representing the Lincoln High School and the North Division High School of Chicago. The home team is undoubtedly the champion of the state and probably of the Missouri Valley, and the Chicago team won the championship of the United States last year by defeating the champion eastern high school team. Aside from the quality of football shown by the two teams, the game will be interesting because the Lincoln team has always been coached by ex-varsity players. The present coach is ex-Captain Benedict. As he will accompany Nebraska to Michigan, he will be unable to be with the boys after Thursday, and Fred Hunter, who developed the wonderful team of the high school last year, will come up from Fairmont Friday to give the boys a few finishing touches. The game will without doubt be the best high school game that will be played west of Chicago this year, and will be an exhibition of football which, in some respects, will be more enjoyable than that of the varsity, owing to the fact that the high school boys are lighter, and there are not so many bruises and other injuries.

 As an additional incentive for a big crowd to go to the game, the high school management and the Nebraskan have completed arrangements whereby bulletins direct from Ferry Field at Michigan will be read every few minutes and the spectators will have an opportunity to see two games at the same time, one actually, one mentally.
 The game will begin at three o'clock. Admission is 50 cents, there being no extra charge for grandstand seats.

Notice.
 News and other items for the Nebraskan should be handed into the office at the east end of the hall of the second floor of University Hall. They should not be put in the box on the outside of the office, as the box belongs to the Latin Department, and not to the Nebraskan, but should be put on the hook inside the office.
