

We Wish Every "Varsity" Man

Knew Armstrong Clothes; might compare them with other clothes; might see how much more they offer for the money; how well they represent the very features a man most desires in his dress--Stylish Cut, Good Looks, Fine Needlecraft and Tailoring, Shape-retaining Construction.

DO you notice how much clothing is described in the papers these days, general terms—big words and long phrases—implying that there are a good many mysterious things about the garments that you can't understand? Men get tired of all this blue sky and lovely atmosphere in their clothes—they want something to put on and wear; something that will feel right, look right, keep shape and last a long time. The merits of Armstrong Clothing are actual, tangible things that you can see and that other people can see and that the salesman can point out to you. The farther you go into Armstrong Clothing the better they are. Worthy of your attention are our
