..G/M/PUS GLEANINGS..

Remember the athletic carnival, Thursday at 2:30. Spread the word among your friends in town. Old students you can tell the freshmen the fun ahead, and better still of the good work. Let every students turn out, and bring one citizen of Lincoln. The College Settlement needs your word and aid.

Two large boxes of apparatus came to the Department of Botany yesterday and more are expected soon.

The botanists are "kicking" vigorously over the putting of dogs into the plant house. The barking and howling of the beasts is not appreciated by students when studying plants. They hope to have the beasts driven out in time. A similar complaint is made from the students in the library. If the trouble does not stop soon it will be necessary to post notices on the doors, "No Dogs Admitted."

Freshman Laws Meet.

The first-year law class held a meeting yesterday morning in U 207 and much important business was transacted. A committee was appointed to confer with the committees from the other law classes in regard to the Law Book which it is the intention of the Law School to get out this year. It was also decided to have the Freshman Law Hop again this year, although the class last year lost considerable money in that way. A cordial invitation will be extended to all other classes to participate in this function, in order to make the hop a success. On the Annual committee President Whelan appointed Robbins, Durham, and Sunderland. The Hop committee is composed of Wilkinson, Rice and Sherlock.

Students Are Studying the Bible.

This week marks the opening of the Bible classes in the Y. M. C. A. More men have signified a desire to study the Bible this year than has been true in any recent year. This is merely indicative of a prevailing sentiment among college men all over the country. The local association is still urging men to take up this most important study and to make it a part of their regular college curriculum. Any student can register at the association office or any of the leaders will be able to take care of those desirous to take up any one of the courses. The first year course is a study in the life of Christ in which there are nine classes, with the following leaders: O. L. Thompson, meeting Monday at 7 p. m.; M. A. Benedict, Tuesday at 7 p. m.; R. R. Hill, Thursday at 7 p. m.; M. E. Cornelius, Friday, 5 p. m.; I. C. Baldwin, Friday, 7 p. m.; W. H. Smith, Sunday, 9 a. m.; A. E. Wolf, Sunday, 9 a. m.; L. T. Sidwell, Sunday, 9 a. m.; L. A. Higgins, Sunday, 9:15 a. m. A class in "The Teaching of Jesus and His Apostles," meeting on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, will be led by D. P. DeYoung. Another class, studying "Old Testament Characters," will meet on Thursday at 7 p. m. and will be led by the secretary.

A regular outline is followed in each week's work and at the end of the week the men meet in groups to discuss the work gone over. These groups meet for one hour each week. Besides the above classes, there will be a class in almost every fraternity house in the city. These will be led by men in the chapter and will be under the direction of each fraternity.

Meeting of Republican Club.

An enthusiastic body of republicans assembled in Memorial Hall last Saturday evening in response to the call of President Ozman of the Republican Club, for a rally. The program as originally announced included an address by Representative Pollard, but he was unable to be present and a number of addresses by student members of the organization were arranged to fill up the program. Dr. F. A. Graham, candidate for county coroner of Lancaster county, was present and made a short talk. The University Band played several selections.

After the regular program there was a general discussion of several topics of University interest. Considerable resentment was expressed by the speakers over the stand taken on the Temple fund question by L. C. Lightner, present candidate on the independent ticket for University Regent. They seemed unable to explain the change which has taken place in Mr. Lightner's views since he graduated from the University in 1904 and was, while in school, a supporter of the Temple fund, having contributed to the same.

Resolutions endorsing T. M. Lucas, candidate for county judge of Merrick county, were passed by unanimous vote.

The annual election of officers was held after the program and resulted in the choice of the following:
 President, Arthur G. A. Nelson; vice-president, C. L. Waldron; secretary, H. N. Mattley; treasurer, I. L. Thompson; members of the executive committee, Joe Lowe, Herbert G. Myers, R. C. Ozman.

President Nelson announced the following committees:
 Membership—Herbert G. Myers, chairman; H. B. Durham, W. E. Hill, B. E. Yoder, J. H. Sherlock, O. J. Shaw, C. L. Waldron, S. M. Rinaker, R. A. Van Orsdel, L. J. Pepperberg.
 Bulletin—R. C. Ozman, chairman; E. L. White, O. A. Bergren.

The management is planning to have Representative Pollard address the club at some future date and it also desires to have the republican candidates for Regents appear before a University audience at some date prior to election.
