FACULTY PERFORM

ASSISTED BY A FEW OUTSIDERS.

Attendance Large.—Bilton Master of Ceremonies.—Governor Wins by Large Margin.

The faculty circus is a thing of the past and great are the feelings of thanks and gratitude that went up from many a professor's heart, yesterday at sundown, to think that he had survived the day; had not been tramped on by the fearless riders; had not been killed by the savage Indians; had not been scared to death by the Senior football warriors, or had not lost life or limb in the performance of his special stunt. Considering the appalling dangers into which he was at times compelled to rush heedlessly much sympathy is extended to the prof. who, after the thing was all over with, said he felt as wonderfully relieved as if he had thrown up an alligator.

Shortly after the appointed time, the University band, led by Bummy Booth paraded over the grounds. Bummy gave them all kinds of football signals but the band played on. Close on their trail followed the Faculty band of several pieces headed by that peerless leader, Prof. Ross. Just what kinds of instruments they played is not known. The like of them has never been seen or heard in musical circles before—and probably never will be again. But the audience enjoyed seeing and hearing the band nevertheless. Some people even boasted of having recognized the various airs the band played and these were almost wild in demonstrating their appreciation of the performance. After they had left the field they were given a place of honor in the grand stand and Swezey, one of the prominent players, treated his fellow brothers in misery with peanuts.

A large portion of the time was taken up by the cavalry cavalcade. About thirty trained saddle horses and a couple of untrained burros made the spectators eyes water and heads swim from the time they put in their appearance until they left the field. This part of the performance was under the charge of Captain Workizer and much credit is due him and Prof. Taylor for putting in trim a herd of untamed horses in so short a time.

Captain Workizer and Prof. Taylor afterwards gave individual exhibitions with their horses. The captain performed daring feats in mounting and dismounting and the latter's did some fine fancy stepping.

While the horses were yet circling back and forth in the ring the smoke of the pioneer's camp fire was seen in the distance rising to the sky. Away off to the south could be had glimpses of savage Indians with paint on their faces and eagle feathers in their hair. Their very actions indicated that they had fire in their eyes and murderous thoughts in their hearts. As they drew nearer, the crowd was able to recognize among the Indian braves, the famous old Sitting Bull, who had played a prominent part in the massacre of General Custer. He had with

PLAY PRACTICE GAME.

Harvey Injured on Account of the Hard and Uneven Field.

The varsity and scrubs played a practice game on the athletic field last evening at the close of the Faculty foolishness program. The varsity was composed of the subs nearly altogether. The game consisted of one short half of hard playing.

The varsity did not play on last evening with the snap they generally do when the old veterans are in the line-up. Neither Cotton nor Wilson were on the field last night in their football togs. Borg was on the sidelines coaching the scrubs, while Westover was coaching the varsity in its style of play. Benedict, who was at the end position on the varsity, made some good runs and did some good punting.

One of the regrettable features of the game was the injury of Harvey on the scrubs. At first it was thought that his arm was broken, but upon medical examination it was found that the ligaments were torn. This accident was due probably to the very poor condition of the field. An afternoon of horse-racing and parading made it very hard and uneven. The original condition was surely bad enough, but after yesterday's performance the field was unfit for football practice.

The number of men to be taken to Omaha has not been decided upon, but it is quite likely that a large number will be taken. Booth wishes to strengthen his guard positions before the game with Minnesota.

Convocation.

The regular musical program will take up the convocation hour this morning. Following is the program: (a) Frühlingslied; (b) Vellehen Uberall; (c) Ich Weiss Night Warum; (d) Lass Mich Dem Auge Kussen; (e) In Alten Tagen... A. von Flieltz Mr. George Johnston. Am Meer; Sorree de iVenne..... Schubert-Liszt Miss Aenone Poston. Onaway, Beloved.... Coleridge Taylor Mr. Johnston.

OMAHA EXCURSION.

A large number of students have arranged to go to Omaha on Saturday to see the Creighton-Nebraska game. The rate of one dollar and ten cents over the Rock Island is surely proving to be a great drawing card. Nebraska will be cheered to victory on Saturday by as large a crowd as ever went away from Lincoln to a football game, with the exception of the Minnesota game a few years ago.

Manager Morrison has arranged for the convenience of the students to put the tickets on sale in the Nebraskan office this morning at Convocation period. All those who have not as yet purchased tickets should embrace this opportunity and secure tickets. The duty of every loyal Nebraska student is to go to Omaha and give the team your support vocally.

ATHLETIC BOARD

ADOPTS RESOLUTION TO FIX OFFICIAL DESIGN FOR UNI.

Eager, Cramer, and Van Orsdel Elected Managers of the Baseball, Track and Basketball Teams.

The Athletic Board met in Dr. Clapp's office last evening to transact the regular business of the board. The first thing under discussion was in regard to the adoption of some official design which could be worked up into badges, pennants, and pillow tops. The following resolution was adopted by the Board:

"Believing the time has now come when Nebraska should have an official design which can be worked up into badges, pennants, pillow tops, etc.; and since the great seal of the University is not readily adaptable to the purpose, be it

"Resolved, By the Athletic Board, that the secretary be instructed to receive until November 15 sealed suggestions for such design. And

"Whereas, The name 'Cornhusker' has by common consent been assigned to Nebraska, therefore be it

"Resolved, That preference be given to designs which most clearly and simply involve the 'Cornhusker' idea."

The eligibility of the men on different athletic teams was then discussed, and it was decided that this question could be settled for all time, by appointing a committee on eligibility. The committee appointed was President of the Board, Dr. Lees, Dr. Chaburn, and the captain of each athletic team as ex-officio associates of the committee. These men only hold office as members of this committee during the season of which they are captain.

The excursion to Omaha on Saturday was sanctioned by the Board, and it was also decided to send the band. This insures the success of the excursion, as the band with the co-operation of the authorities will be the means of attracting a much larger crowd.

The next order of business was the election of managers for the baseball, track, and basketball teams. Earl Eager was elected to the position of baseball manager. Eager has been prominent in athletics in the University ever since his entrance, and this election does not come as a surprise to his friends. Dwight Cramer, assistant manager of the track team of '05, was elected manager of the same. Cramer is a member of the class of '07, his home being in Omaha. R. A. Van Orsdel, who was chosen for basketball manager, is a member of the class of '06, and has been athletic editor on the Nebraskan for the past two semesters.

The class in General Botany, commonly known as Botany 1, is larger by twenty per cent than ever before, containing 118 students, while at this time last year there were 95. As a consequence the class room and laboratory are crowded. If the increase in numbers continues it is only a matter of a short time before the department will have to be supplied with larger rooms.
