It is To Laugh.

Coach Booth said Nebraska could lick Michigan. They ran along behind Michigan and licked its tracks. Nebraska and her professional eleven saw her pipe dream go up in smoke. Benedict, the wonder, is playing with the Cornhuskers again. He made his first appearance there shortly after the civil war. Nebraska has unanimously suspended her usual ten-year rule in order to let Benedict play another season. Before many more years rheumatism in that bad knee combined with gray haired senility will send him to the side lines. Let him play as long as he can, he has to earn a living, and football's his only trade. In Lincoln they say they'll skin us 30 points. Let's see some of your 30 point money when we come down there "dear Cornhuskers." We'll cover it faster than Major Delmar can cover a mile. Coach Klenholz does not swell up and bust as Coach Booth did at Ann Arbor. If we can't do better against you than you did at Ann Arbor, we'll eat every ounce of dirt on Nebraska field.—Silver and Gold.

And just to think! This from Colorado! The college that played Ralph Glaze two years after he became an open professional, despite the protest of other Colorado colleges; the college that once tried to win a game from Colorado College by sending two hundred rooters armed with brickbats out on to the field and mobbing the Springs pitcher; the college that had to import Foote in order to have a veteran line this year and beat Nebraska on its own field; and, above all, the college whose football team has been coached by the illustrious lunatic who rambled along so foolishly in last Christmas' Collier's. And then to assume this little tin angel attitude toward Nebraska!
