The Forest Club meets Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in N. 110. Mr. G. A. Loveland of the Weather Bureau will speak on "The Effects of Forests Upon Rainfall."

The Zoological Club will meet this evening at eight o'clock in M. 301. A number of reviews will be made, and some very valuable work done. The reviewers are Messrs. Swingle, Walker and Ward. Visitors are cordially invited.

The Junior Laws met to decide their position with regard to the Law Book yesterday morning, but as only a few of the class remained to the meeting, it was decided not to take any action until a larger attendance could be obtained. In the afternoon a list was circulated among the Junior Laws to see how many books would be subscribed for, and the entire class seemed to be willing to take two books apiece.

First Band Informal.
The first band informal of the year will be given in the Art Hall next Saturday night. These band informals were inaugurated three years ago, and immediately sprang into great popularity, being attended by a much larger crowd than any of the other hops or proms. In former years the main obstacle to the complete success of these dances has been the large number of stags who attended each one, and last year the management was forced to provide for this by charging the stags double price. It is to be hoped that this step will not be necessary this year, but if it is, the manager is bound to take it. Dancing always begins promptly at nine, and stops shortly before midnight.

BE A MIXER, SAYS PROF.

Oil Varsity Man Disregards Rockefeller's Advice.
Chicago, Oct. 26.—Be a "good fellow." Learn to "mix." Acquire the social graces. Do not overlook the pleasant things of life, which mean fortune and happiness. And do not make books your only friends, for they are small comfort out in the hard, cold world.

This advice was given to University of Chicago students as the formula for success by Prof. Frank J. Miller, the Midway dean of affiliations, yesterday. The recent utterances of John D. Rockefeller, who has expressed himself as opposed to being a "good fellow," were completely ignored by the professor.

"It is not good for man to be alone," said Professor Miller. "Therefore cultivate the social graces. Learn to gain access to your fellow men. It is worth a fortune to be a 'good mixer.' It means a life full of happiness. The really successful man gets around among men and does not hold himself apart."—Detroit Journal, Oct. 26.

Three new lanterns, designed to be used with opaque objects, have been received by different departments of the University.
