Engineering Items.

Mr. J. C. Stevens and wife came in from Denver Wednesday and will visit friends over Sunday. Mr. Stevens holds a position with the United States Reclamation Service and has been working in Denver. He recently received a promotion and is now on his way to Washington, D. C., to take up his new duties.

J. B. Davidson, '04, was on the campus Saturday. Mr. Davidson is now assistant professor at Ames, where he is in charge of the Agricultural Engineering. Ames is considered one of the leading schools in the United States in this line of engineering. It speaks well for Mr. Davidson's work, for the people at Ames looked around four or five months before choosing a man capable of filling the position. L. W. Chase has charge of the farm mechanics in place of Mr. Davidson, who was here last year. The University is fortunate in getting Mr. Chase for this position.

Professor Richards is in receipt of a letter from the president of the University of Washington in which he states that Mr. Bowlby, '05, who is teaching there, is giving excellent satisfaction. Professor Richards has received two letters from different places asking for teachers in mechanical engineering, but as yet he has been unable to find them.

The main line belt in the wood shop broke one day this week. Fortunately no harm was done, beyond the scaring of a few Freshmen.

J. Westover spent Saturday and Sunday in Denver.

Hereafter the Engineering Items will appear in the NEBRASKAN on Wednesdays and Saturdays, instead of Wednesdays and Fridays.

Second Call.

It is important that all Seniors in the Industrial College who intend to graduate in February should see me in my office, Deans Room, 11:30 to 12 o'clock of any school day. Bring your record book with you.

CHARLES E. BESSEY,
 Dean of Industrial College.

A Definition of Football.

"Football—A system of manslaughter very fashionable with boys. From the Latin words, 'footibus,' meaning 'put the boots to him,' and 'ballona,' meaning 'up in the air, or who hit me with a public building?' A body of college students surrounded by ambulances. By illustration:

"Sing a song of football
 Pockets full of salve;
 Four and twenty legs all
 Punctured at the calves.
 Captain in the hospital
 Fullback in the soup,
 Twenty-seven faces
 Broken in the group.
 Sophomores and freshmen
 Punched around the ring;
 When the war is over
 The boys began to sing:
 'Raw! Raw! Raw!
 Raw! Raw! Raw!
 Stew them!
 Fry them!
 Raw! Raw! Raw!
 Oysters!'"

Students should remember to get their reserved seat tickets for the Ames-Nebraska game today. The sale has been large and as a result but few of the students will get good seats unless they hurry.

Notice.

News and other items for the NEBRASKAN should be handed into the office at the east end of the hall of the second floor of University Hall. They should not be put in the box on the outside of the office, as the box belongs to the Latin Department, and not to the NEBRASKAN, but should be put on the hook inside the office.
