TEAM LEAVES AT SIX O'CLOCK OVER THE BURLINGTON.

Men in Good Shape to Meet the Gophers—Big Mass Meeting This Morning at Convocation.

The mass meeting for the football men will be held in Memorial Hall this morning at 11 o'clock to give the men an enthusiastic send-off for Minnesota. The arrangements have been made and, if the students appear to carry out their part of the program, there should be no reason why this meeting should not be the best of its kind ever given. The football men have been going through some very hard work this week and this meeting should serve to give the men an idea of what the students think of their ability to defeat the Northerners.

The program will be in the hands of Professor Bolton, whose enthusiasm in football is known by every student. Other prominent professors will speak to the students, as well as some of the football men. Those who attend these meetings know how each man on the team is made to respond to a call for a speech by the enthusiastic students. It is hoped by the yell rooters that some new songs will be ready for the meeting this morning. About five or ten minutes of the time will be given over to rooting.

Partially, the object of this meeting is to boost the Minnesota excursion. The students should improve their opportunity to secure a low rate and go to Minneapolis to the game. It means more to a team to have loyal rooters on the sidelines cheering them on every play than anything else the student body could do to aid them in the game. Many tickets have been sold already for this excursion, but too many of those who are buying tickets are citizens from Lincoln, and not enough students. Those who have not secured tickets should make an early trip to the Northwestern office and purchase the tickets. Many tickets for the game have been sold to those desiring to go to the Nebraska section in the grandstand. It is necessary that the students should get these early in order that a return may be made to the Minnesota management on Friday. The tickets are on sale at Harry Porter's, Nebraskan office, and with J. E. Edgerton.

Booth has been putting the men through some hard practice this past week. The work has been mostly with the guard positions, which seems to be Nebraska's weakness at the present time. Jenkins and Wenstrand have been the men worked hardest in order that they might be in a fit condition for Saturday's contest. Booth has also been working on the end material in order to have a man to fill Denslow's place.

The physical condition of the men is the best, very few having sustained injuries in the Colorado game. Johnson, who had a "game" leg, is, to all intent of the word, well again, and ready to buck up against the best of them. Cotton, who was stale and over-trained for a couple of weeks, is up to his usual form now.

The officials for Saturday's game have been selected and are as follows: Referee, Lieutenant Hackett, West Point; umpire, Allen; head linesman, McCarthy, Wisconsin. Booth had not selected the men who would make the Minnesota trip when the paper went to press.

INTERCLASS ATHLETIC BOARD

Makes Rules for the Football Games Between Classes.

The interclass athletic board met for the first time this year in the Y. M. C. A. rooms during the convocation hour yesterday morning and decided upon the rules which are to govern all interclass contests for the present year. It was decided that the members of the Law School should be entitled to play on the academic class teams, the senior laws to be counted as juniors, the junior laws as juniors, and the freshman laws as sophomores. This move was opposed by the representatives of the freshman class, but all the other classes were in favor of it. This will insure stronger class teams all the way through the upper classes, whose teams generally become weaker each year.

In regard to the eligibility of players, it was decided that no player who had ever won the initial could engage in that line of athletics on class teams, but that he should not be barred from the other lines. All men who have had the first team signals this season are barred from playing on the class football teams.

Quite a dispute arose as to whether the laws should still have representation on the board. This was not finally settled, but it is probable that since the different classes are now fused, the reason for separate representation has failed, and it will be ruled against.
