HOLD ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY LEAVES FOR MINNEAPOLIS

Students Manifest Great Confidence in Team to Defeat Minnesota.

Prof. Wyer, Aided by the University Band, Leads the Students in a Spirited Meeting—Excursion leaves over Northwestern tonight at 5:00, 5:30 and 6:00 O'clock.

Memorial Hall was packed to the doors yesterday morning at eleven o'clock with students anxious to give the team such a send-off as no Nebraska team had ever received. In order to keep the men quiet and calm, Coach Booth had issued orders that none of the players should be present, and had taken them off the campus during that hour for a little instruction, but this did not seem to diminish the enthusiasm in a particle. The band occupied the rostrum, and prevented any long speeches by breaking in with some new song or piece at short intervals. The football song which had been composed for the Colorado game was altered to fit the game tomorrow, and a copy of the revised version was they must be careful not to cheer while either quarter is giving the signals, for we must show the Gophers that we respect our rule of honor both at home and abroad.

Professor Wyer then made a plea for the band. The Athletic Board had given one hundred and fifty dollars to take the band to the game, but this was just half enough, and he said that it was the duty of the students to raise the remainder of the necessary amount. He suggested that a hat be held at the door and that each student drop a quarter into it as he passed out. This was received by loud applause by the audience and everybody began to hunt through their pockets for change.

The remainder of the meeting was taken up with music and rooting. All the university cheers were given over and over, and the yelling ceased only when the bell rang. Then the crowd filed out, singing "Sota, poor Minnesota."

Cross Country Try-Outs.

The try-outs for the cross country team to represent Nebraska at Chicago on Thanksgiving was held last night. About ten men entered the try-out and all finished in fair time. The course was north and east from the Armory to the fair grounds, around the track four times, and back to the Armory. This course, when covered, equalled about five and one-fourth miles.

A surprise was sprung on the spectators when Strohm, a freshman from Fairbury, led the crowd by sixty yards at the finish. Heath, who was expected to win, was second, and Alden, third. Strohm made a great run, covering the distance in 27 minutes and 27 seconds. Considering the condition of the course, this was remarkable time. Heath was about ten seconds behind Strohm. Others who made good time were Morgan and Kuns.

Students Give the Team a Royal Sendoff at the Burlington Depot—Much Cheering as Train Pulls Out—Men in the Best of Physical Condition for Great Struggle.

A monstrous rally and send-off was given to the football team last evening when the train departed to Minneapolis. About one thousand people had gathered at the Burlington depot by 5:50 p. m. yesterday, and from this time until the team departed the time was spent in giving the university yells and short speeches by some of the men. The enthusiasm of the past week reached the climax last night and the men were sent off in the proper way.

The small buttonhole posters were very much instrumental in bringing forth the large crowd. The work of Booth, in his stay at Nebraska, to create enthusiasm among the students has surely been very successful. At the beginning of his work here it was almost impossible to get even a corporal's guard out to the games, let alone rooting. But now the enthusiasm manifested by Nebraska students is not excelled in the west.

The football men with first team signals reported for practice on the field last evening at 3:30. Booth sent the men through a swift signal practice, every man being given a warming up, and trial at the signals. The only change in the line-up of the Nebraska team since the Colorado game is the change of Morse to right end. Morse will strengthen the line much, and has shown himself to be a good tackler.

Dinner was served to the team at the training table at 5:10 p. m. After this they immediately proceeded to the depot, where they had a special car for their use. The car was decorated with University colors, and the scarlet and cream will be the men's companion until they reach the Twin Cities. There they will defend it, and that nobly.

Manager Morrison will keep the team in St. Paul until Saturday noon, when they will be taken direct to Northrup Field. In the evening after the game, Nebraska will be entertained at the Bijou theater in Minneapolis. The manager of the has extended an invitation to the team to see "The Grafters."

The men who accompanied Booth and Morrison to Minneapolis on last night's train are as follows:

Morse, Borg, Johnson, Eager, Weststrand, Taylor, Benedict, Jenkins, Cotton, McMahon, Miller, Lundin, Lantz, Drain, Wilson, Little, Schmidt, Mason, Weller, Burns, McDonald, Nelson.

hung where all could see it, and all joined in when the band sang it. It took even better than was the case a week ago, and all morning students were humming the tune.

Professor Wyer made his first appearance for a couple of years in the capacity of leader, and showed how eminently fit he is for the position. After a brief introductory speech, frequently interrupted by loud cheers from the audience, he called on the band to perform. Then Dr. Bolton, who has become the stand-by of the university for such occasions, took the platform and added to the enthusiasm by predicting victory over our old enemy. He also cautioned the students who should go on the excursion that

Nebraska State Bar Association.

The Nebraska State Bar association will hold its sixth annual meeting in the Creighton College of Law in Omaha, Wednesday and Thursday, November 22 and 23. The program is very excellent and includes Hon. Charles B. Letton, justice-elect of the supreme court; Hon. Geo. R. Peck, president of the American Bar association; Dr. Roscoe Pound, dean of the College of Law, and many other prominent lawyers of America.

Following the meeting the annual dinner will be held at the Her Grand Hotel. The Omaha Bar association and the Nebraska State Bar association will hold their dinner together under the auspices of the latter.
