

SKERS OF 1905

J. H. Weller, half-back, tackle, weight 180 pounds. Weller has played on the varsity for the past two years, and he clinched his place on the varsity last year by his wonderful work in the Nebraska-Illinois game. He has been a member of the University track team for one year. His home is Seward, Neb., and he is registered in the Junior Academic class.

Earl Eager, half-back and quarter, weight 150 pounds. "Dog" has played on the varsity for four years, winning his place as a member of the varsity squad by his fearlessness in line bucking and running in a broken field. Eager is a Senior Law, and his home is in Lincoln. He is the manager-elect of the varsity baseball team.

L. Denslow, right end, weight 156 pounds. "Mike" has played on the varsity for two years and is now considered one of the best ends Nebraska has ever had on account of his sure tackling. His first experience in football was on the Fremont High School team. Denslow is registered in the Junior class, and is from Hooper, Nebr.

W. J. Woods, assistant manager of the football team, graduated at the February commencement last year. Woods has been connected with athletics more or less ever since his entrance in school. He served one year on the Athletic Board and has held other positions in connection with athletics. Woods is registered as a special student from Pawnee City.

F. A. Schmidt, left half, weight 170 pounds. Schmidt got his first experience in football on the Fairbury High School team. He played on the 'varsity the first part of '04 at the position of full-back. His home is Fairbury, and he is a member of the junior law class.

As Lundin had not won a place on the varsity when the order for cuts was placed, no half-tone for him was made. As Fred is carrying so much work in so many departments, however, everybody will have a chance to see him in person before a week is gone. It is also certain that he will be prominent enough in the game today to be distinguished.

Merle Little, left half, weight 176 pounds. This is Little's first year on the varsity, but he won his place by his strong defensive work. His first experience in football was on the class teams, in interclass games. Little is a Junior Academic, and his home is in Lincoln.

C. L. Morse, end and quarterback, weight 160 pounds. This is "Silent's" first year on the varsity, but his speed has made him a strong player. Morse is captain of the baseball team of '06 and last year he was a track and baseball man. He is registered in the Junior Academic, and comes from Harvard, Nebr.

John Westover, assistant coach, has been Booth's assistant ever since he has been at Nebraska. While he was on the team for four years, yet he had had so much experience in the game that he proved a valuable man for Booth. Westover was captain of the team for two years, being the only man that ever captained a Nebraska team more than one year.

W. J. Jenkins, guard, weight 180 pounds. Jenkins is registered in the Junior Civil Engineering class. This is his first year on the varsity, but his size and nerve has made him good varsity material. His home is in Fairmont, Nebr.

K. BEST
raider.

CAPTAIN CHARLES BORG

C. F. Borg, captain and center, weight 195 pounds. This is Borg's fourth season on the team, and he is acknowledged to be the peer of any center in the West. He received his bachelor's degree from the University in 1903 and will graduate from the law department next June. His home is in Lincoln, and during the summer's he is a member of the city fire department.

G. B. MacDonald, right end, weight 142. "Gill" is a third year academic, and has had a position on the varsity for two years, last year at quarter. MacDonald had his first football experience on the Lincoln High. His home is in Lincoln.

Robert Taylor, guard, weight 208 pounds. "Bob" is the giant player from the York High School, and his fierce line plunges and tackling has made him one of the most promising candidates for the eleven that has entered Nebraska for some years. Taylor is a freshman Medic, and his home is in York, Nebr.

T. R. Nelson, guard, weight 206 pounds. This is Nelson's first year on the varsity. His football training was in South Dakota, where he played on the South Dakota University team one year. He is a Senior Law, and comes from Wayne, Nebr.
