Seed Corn Special.

Professor Lyon of the Agricultural department and head of the Experiment Station, has practically completed his plans for the annual seed corn special.

Accompanied by other experts representing Iowa, Illinois and Missouri, Professor Lyon will leave Lincoln over the Burlington on the morning of December 18. The trip will last eleven days and will cover as much of Nebraska and Kansas as possible.

In the past the lectures and instructions given by the experts during these annual trips have been of great benefit to the farmers throughout the state. Indeed, such interest has been taken in the work that the coming of the special is eagerly anticipated by the farmers all along the route.

Miss Mabel Dayton, '04, principal of the high school at Superior, Neb.; Miss Eleanor Johnson, '04, assistant principal, Tilden, Neb.; Miss Elizabeth Brenizer, '05, teacher in the schools of Broken Bow, Neb., and Miss Florence Wescott, '05, teacher in the schools of Ohioa, Neb., spent their Thanksgiving vacation in Lincoln and were callers, with others, on Professor Luckey to report progress.
