Academy News.
We regret very much to say that Miss Dean will leave at the end of this semester for Spokane, where she will teach Latin in the high school. Her folks are now living there, having moved from Ashland. Miss Dean has been with us ever since Professor Hodgman took hold of the Academy. We wish her every possible success in her new field of work.
The "Social Hour" will meet with Mrs. Hodgman next Saturday. The girls will have entire charge. Program, refreshment and invitation committees have been appointed. A good time is assured to all who come.
The Debating club met Saturday evening with a very good attendance. The subject discussed was, "Resolved, That intercollegiate football is a benefit rather than a detriment." Miss Lyman and Mr. Dressler defended the affirmative and Miss Stevenson and Mr. Nelson upheld the negative. The debate was very interesting and well conducted.
A challenge received from the University Students' Club has been accepted. This debate will come off after the Christmas vacation. Mr. Heskitt, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Dressler will represent the Academy.

Reception by Santa Claus.
The Y. M. C. A. has issued an invitation to the members of the Y. W. C. A. to attend a reception in their honor at the Art Hall next Saturday evening. The invitation is a work of art, and shows the fine Italian hand of the genial secretary, Arthur Jorsensen, and reads as follows:

RECEPTION TO SANTA CLAUS.
On account of the unusual rush in this year's Christmas preparations, Mr. Santa Claus, that well known gentleman and friend of all good little girls and boys, has notified the University Y. M. C. A. that he will arrive in the city earlier than usual, probably Saturday, December 16th, to remain for a few hours. He is well known as a "ladies' man" and expressed a desire to meet all Y. W. C. A. members. In consequence of this startling fact, the Y. M. C. A. has arranged to perpetuate a Shindig in honor of merry old Kris in Art Hall at 8:30 p. m. on the aforesaid date.

Santa Claus, appreciating this opportunity of meeting so many fair Nebraska girls, has kindly consented to bring to the doin's a Christmas tree which he claims "is a doodle."
As Mr. Claus is a rewarder of merit, only those whose records are clean for the past year will be invited. This promises a very SMALL AND SELECT CROWD, each member of which will receive a Humdinger of a Present from the hands of the old gentleman himself.
P. S. Look out for the Mistletoe.
P. S. (Number 2) You are cordially invited to be present.

A. A. Hiemrod left Saturday for O'Neill, Nebr., where he will act as instrument man on location for a proposed electric line. He will return to school after the holidays.
