Reception to Teachers.
A reception to the public school teachers of Lincoln will be given Monday by the officers and directors of the Art Exhibit, for the purpose of acquainting the teachers with the merits of the exhibit. Speeches will be made by President H. B. Lowry, Prof. W. M. Patterson of Wesleyan, Mrs. F. M. Hall, and Miss Pierce, director of art in the Lincoln public schools. This is done to arouse the interest of the teachers who are in turn expected to arouse their students. The students and teachers of each ward generally come on some set day. Prizes are given by the management to those having the largest percentage of attendance on the basis of enrollment. The prizes are always famous reproductions of masterpieces. University students will find this a profitable evening on which to attend the exhibit.

accompanied by the Chancellor's guarantee to each of the universities. Should the plan be accepted, the choice of the faculty and courses and the determining of the next location will be in the hands of an executive committee composed of the heads of the German departments of the universities. The management here desires to inaugurate the movement and have the first session in Lincoln. Should the plan be accepted a special catalogue of the German courses will be issued and distributed widely throughout the interested states.

Clearing Sale

Start the year right by trading here.
You made a resolution to save more money this year, didn't you? The best way to put that good resolution into effect is to do all your buying at this store.
Don't by any means miss the Clearing Sale. It's the bargain event of the year. The time of all others that you can't afford to wait until some one else gets all the good things, or until the sale is over.
Be prompt. Do it now. Come right down to the store and make one of the busy throng that are eagerly buying their supply of good staple things at prices, in most cases, one-third less than usual.
And lots of goods are marked at even greater reductions than that.
Now, don't get mixed. There's only one store that you can always depend on, and that one is
