MY MAGAZINE, "INVESTING FOR PROFIT" (which I'll send free) is worth $10 a copy to any man who intends to invest any money, however small; who has money invested unprofitably, or who can save $5 or more per month, but who hasn't learned the art of investing for profit.

It demonstrates the REAL earning power of money—the knowledge financiers and bankers hide from the masses.

It shows how to invest small sums and how to make them grow into fortunes—the actual possibilities of intelligent investments.

It reveals the enormous profits bankers make and shows how one can make the same profits safely.

It explains HOW stupendous fortunes are made and WHY they are made—how $1,000 grows to $22,000.

To introduce my magazine write me NOW, mentioning this paper and I'll send it SIX MONTHS FREE.

Dramatic Club Choses a Pin. Members of the Dramatic Club will be identified in the future by a small gold pin bearing the monogram of the sword and mask and the letters "U. of N." This pin, besides being a thing of beauty in itself, will be a mark of merit as only persons of marked ability in the art of entertainment are admitted to the club.

Members can see the pattern and leave their orders with Miss Howell before February 1st.

At a special business meeting yesterday morning the club decided to assist the Athletic Association in their entertainment at the Oliver by putting on a short comedy drama entitled "A Professional Nurse." This play will be managed by Mr. Keyser.

Miss M. H. Perley, supervisor of manual training in Lincoln city schools, will offer next semester two one-hour teachers' training courses in elementary manual training. This work will consist of actual hand work in the subject, about two hours and a half a week for each, together with extensive readings on the general problems involved in the psychology of manual training. Young women who are interested in teaching this subject may find it desirable to investigate the character of the work. Mrs. Barkley, dean of women, will be glad to give full information regarding these courses. University students desiring to take one or both of these subjects will be allowed an hour's credit for each course in special training, providing they register for same.
