Can you converse

Intelligently regarding any book you may have been reading—as if you had really read it—completely? Well, a novel, a poem, a history, a biography, a drama, an oration, a sermon, or any other literary production, if read or studied as our new book tells one how, becomes a subject which one can discuss or write about in a thoroughly intelligent and comprehensive way.

E. N. Hussong is now superintendent of the Bloomington schools. He is assisted by Miss Edith Hess. The equipment of the school has been considerably increased this year.

Dr. Haggard, 212-213 Richards Bldg.

J. E. Marsh, '05, is now superintendent of the Orleans schools. He is giving unusual satisfaction and under his management the school is rapidly coming to the front rank of Nebraska high schools.

University Dining Room has best coffee, tea, cocoa in town.

A number of University graduates are now teaching in the Ashland schools. Among these are—Superintendent E. E. McGee, Principal Cora O'Connell, Carrie Schultz, T. N. Fleming and J. Hapton.

Professor Cook Honored.

Prof. W. W. Cook, formerly professor of law in the University of Nebraska, but for the past two years professor of law at the University of Missouri, has been honored by the University of Chicago, that institution having invited him to lecture in its college of law during the summer quarter. The course will be a series of lectures on criminal law.

Professor Cook is one of the most effective members of the Missouri faculty, having established the same reputation for high standing and efficient teaching which he established while instructor in this University.

St. Valentine's Outposts are on Sight

Very large lines will be on parade Saturday. Their companies include the very best in every line. Do you know where the best come from?

Raphael Tuck, the London publisher of artistic souvenirs, sends valentines of all descriptions.

The Germans like to make things that "go," and from Germany come the mechanical valentines of Hegelberg. These include the folding tissue paper varieties and the popular Jumping Jack series.

Whitney of America furnishes the elaborate celluloid goods and Parker the hand tinted photographs in folders.

We carry also the International Art Valentines and the best from other good houses.

Prices, 1c and upward.

We are showing a fine line of table decorations for Valentine parties—heart-shaped place cards, ice cups, etc.
