What in the world to give a friend?

Yale men know and the New Haven Union says: "The question of what in the world to give a friend is solved by SONGS OF ALL THE COLLEGES which is alike suitable for the collegian of the past, for the student of the present, and for the boy (or girl) with hopes; also for the music-loving sister and a fellow-beat girl."

All the new songs, all the old songs, and the songs popular at all the colleges, a selection of the best in any home or school.

The "Language of Hope."

Negotiations are now in progress looking to the adoption of Esperanto in the proceedings of the Peace Congress, the last session of which was held in St. Louis in 1904.

The Rev. Francis E. Clark, who organized the Christian Endeavor movement, has an article on the "Language of Hope" in the last number of The Christian Endeavor World, which a friend has kindly handed me. After giving other reasons for learning the language, he says:

"But there is a religious side to all this, as I have intimated; and this appeals to many of our friends, and especially to Rev. Horace Dutton, who has fostered Christian Endeavor in so many countries in Europe, and has now gone to London to perfect himself in Esperanto, that he may preside over the Esperanto meeting at the World's Christian Endeavor convention at Geneva next summer.

"He feels, and I see much force in it, that a common language will break down many barriers to the spread of the gospel, that it will multiply Christian literature for non-Christian lands, and be a means of intercommunication between Christians in all countries.

"It is certainly appropriate that an international society like the Christian Endeavor should foster and encourage an international language. No other can do it so well. I am not so quick at learning a language as many, and a man past fifty has lost half his linguistic power, but I shall do the best I can with it, and I would certainly advise every young person to take it up, and thoroughly learn the language of Hope, the language of Brotherhood, the language of the twentieth century."

The Rev. Clark "has seen the cities of many men," and knows perhaps as well as any other man living what it means to have to depend on interpreters in foreign lands.

The class in Esperanto will meet Friday at 5 p. m., and regularly thereafter at that time, unless it should be found that another hour will better suit all concerned.

FRANK M. JOHNSON, U. 203.

"When there is a sick patient in the house, don't make too much noise. Football is in a critical condition and your attention may only kill the sport. Go slow; don't do anything foolish in your mass meeting." This was the advice given by President Northrup of Minnesota in a heart to heart talk with the students at the university recently regarding the mass meeting on Wednesday night. He defended the veto power which has been given to the various faculty committees over student activities, saying that such powers are necessary in order to prevent unwise action which might hurt the university.
