When weary with studies that burden and distress you, stop at Paine's and look at the 1906 spring suits. See the new shades of gray, correct in length—not overdone, but in good taste.

Senior Party.
The Seniors have had arrangements made for some time for a children's party at the State Farm and in consequence are not plagiarizing the idea which the Juniors are using in arranging for their blow-out. As both classes have hit on the same plan, it is up to every Senior to be out and help make their party surpass the one the Juniors give. Don't be always looking around for new worlds to conquer and a chance to show class spirit. This is a chance thrust in your face. As the girls have decided to come by themselves, as they did at the other Senior party, the boys don't need to hang back. The girls will all be out. The price has been reduced to 20 cents and still you will have enough to eat and absolutely the best time you ever had. Those who were at the previous party need no urging, but we would like to see absolutely every Senior there.

Clyde Moore will be there as the original "Buster Brown" (maybe his dog Tige as well), and others of the County Fair Baby Show fame will help to initiate you into the childish pranks and show you life in a new light. You should see the committee at once about purchasing a ticket. Miss Cline, Miss Nora Davis, Mr. Krajacek and Mr. Sidwell are the people in charge and if you see them coming, reach for your money.

Remember the date, April 28, and be there in your best kid's clothes.

Time to be thinking about pennants. You will be pleased with ours at the Uni. Book Store.
