MEET TOMORROW

TRACK MEN TRY OUT TOMORROW FOR PLACES ON THE TEAM.

Largest Number of Candidates Ever Entered for Tryouts in the History of Track Athletics

Dr. Clapp yesterday announced that about forty men had signified their intention of trying for a place on the team which will represent Nebraska in track athletics during the coming meets. The number of men who were on last year's team and who are out again this year is gratifying to those interested, and the large crop of new contestants bids fair to develop some material which will make the old men buckle down hard to hold their places. Many of the new men have had considerable experience in high school work and should not lose their nerve during a close meet.

Tomorrow the men will assemble on the athletic field at 2:15 and will line up as follows in the different events: 100-yard dash—

Winters.
Smith.
Chappel.
Hughes.
Schmidt.
Knode.
Craig.
Wallace.
Coe.

The contestants in the 220-yard dash will be the same as in the 100-yard event.

In the 440-yard run nine men will try, as follows:

Drake.
Weber.
Wilson, H. L.
Coe.
Chappel.
Clancy.
Schmidt.
Bentley.
Winters.

In the half-mile the entries are exceedingly good, and some fast time should be made. Entered are:

Morgan.
Bentley.
Smith.
Craig.
Kuns.
Weber.
Penrod.
Mattison.
Morrow.

1 mile run:

Kavan.
Swan.
Morgan.
Sage.
Allen.
Strome.
Malden.
Stanciff.
Pritchett.

Two-mile:

The order in which the events will be pulled off will be as follows:

100-yard dash.

Pole vault.

Half mile.

120-yard hurdles.

High jump.

220-yard dash.

Hammer throw.

1 mile run.

Running broad jump.

220-yard hurdles.

Discus throw.

440-yard run.

Two-mile run.

This gives an interesting card of fourteen events, every one of which should be snappy and interesting. In nearly every event there are at least a few of the old familiar faces. In the hammer throw the greatest weakness will probably be found, as the old weight men are not back. In the pole vault the absence of Morse and McDonald will be felt, but Morse will be home from the baseball trip in time to help hold up our high vault record.

The first meet this year comes with Minnesota at Minneapolis on May 19 and the week following we meet Kansas on our own ground. Manager Denslow has picked out two of our best neighbors with whom to try conclusions on the cinder path and the interest which is already being manifested in the coming meets is encouraging the men to put forth every effort.

A large crowd is expected at tomorrow's meet. Time, 2:30. Admission, 25 cents.

FAREWELL APPEARANCE.

Dramatic Stars to Retire May 6—Last Performance Tomorrow Night.

Students, Attention!

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock (sharp) the Dramatic Club of the University of Nebraska will offer the recently imported French comedettes, "An Evening of Proposals" and "The Morning Call." The castes are guaranteed to be all-star and the pieces exactly as they were played in Paris last season, where they made the phenomenal record of four hundred performances. As this will be the final appearance of the Dramatic Club this season, it is imperative that all students turn out and attend en semble.

It requires but a glance of the eye to decide the true merits of the evening's performances. In "The Morning Call" we notice among others on the long list of stars, the names of Miss May Edholm as "Mrs. Chillingtone" and of Mr. Harry Keyser in the role of "Sir Edwin Ardent."

Equally as encouraging are the performers of "An Evening of Proposals," among whom such stage-famous names as Haskell, Fenlon, Hanlan, Drew and Irving hold our attention.

To be frank, these two plays will be the best ever put on by the Dramatic Club and are guaranteed by that organization to be the cleverest, the most brilliant and the most unique production ever stages within the confines of Nebraska Fence—all of which is saying a great deal.

Yes, that's it! Memorial Hall, 8 p. m. (sharp, Saturday. Admission, happily, within the reach of all.

P. S. In anticipation of the already enormous advance sales, it is requested that seats be reserved at your earliest possible convenience.

Those wishing to avoid the rush may have their Senior Book reserved by applying to any member of the board. Price, 75 cents.

NOTICE

All Cadets who have paid up their subscription before May 27th will have their paper delivered daily at camp.

CADETS INSPECTED

MAJOR MANN INSPECTS THE BATTALION YESTERDAY.

Army Equipments, Books, Cadets' Appearance, Company and Battalion Drill Are All Looked Over.

The University cadets with many misgivings fell into line yesterday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. At 2:30 all the companies, and the band, were assembled on the athletic field. Major Mann, United States Army, who inspected the men first, called for review, and the cadets passed twice the review stand, the last time at double quick. The companies were then inspected in the following order: D, A, B, and C, after which each company gave an exhibition drill.

All the companies drilled very well in yesterday's inspection, and the battalion drill was exceptionally good. Major Mann carried every feature of the inspection out in a very military manner, and in much less time than the average government inspector uses.

The cadets have but three weeks left before competitive drill. Owing to the weather it has been impossible for the cadets to have as much time for outside drill as has been desired and as a result the captains will have their companies out at least once a day from now on.

The work of the cadets yesterday is a manifestation of their appreciation of what Captain Workizer has done for them during the past year. He has spared no pains to make the Military department one of the most popular in the school and to a very great extent he has realized his end. Every cadet takes up his work with an earnestness that is indeed very gratifying to those interested. The close union between the Military department and other departments is also one feature of the commandant's work which is worthy of much praise.

Next year will see many advances over this, as his system of controlling the battalion will be much better known. Then, again, the antagonism which existed against the department this year will not be there to cope with.

BELLAMY RETURNS.

Injured Ball Player Arrived in Lincoln Yesterday.

"Skip" Bellamy, the Cornhusker fielder who suffered a broken ankle while practicing at Grinnell early in the week, returned to Lincoln yesterday afternoon. The team will be considerably handicapped by Bellamy's absence, as he is one of the heaviest hitters on the team.
