Hold a Grand Jubilee at the State Farm—Return to Childhood Days.

The Juniors can breath freely again now that their kid party has been pulled off. It was a great success from every standpoint except a financial one. There was about sixty or seventy Juniors there, all arrayed in the picturesque garments of their childhood. The children began to arrive at 4 p. m. and proceeded immediately to spin their tops, play baseball, pull-away and a dozen other old time games. Every one tried their best to develop a big appetite and when dinner was announced there was a grand scamper for the pine woods where the eatables were hidden. Stick candy, pie, ice cream, animal cookies till you couldn't eat any more. After several carloads of supplies had been stowed away, the little ones retired to the third floor of the new building and began a series of indoor games that no one who took part will ever forget. After the games there were dances. Round ones, square ones and oblong ones, too, and during one intermission a happy couple were united in wedlock by Rev. Jorgenson. Now every one was tired out, so a few college songs and a car ride home and the Junior kid party was listed among the pleasant memories of the past. Every one praised the heroic work of the committee and wished them a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

May Music Festival.

Subscribers for season tickets to the Thomas Orchestra concerts are given this week in which to reserve their seats. No single admissions will be sold until May 14. The programs arranged by the conductor, Frederick A. Stock, have been received and include the march and chorus from "Tannhauser" and Beethoven's "Symphony No. 5." The chorus under Mrs. Raymond, now numbering 230, will take part in the chorus from "Tannhauser" the first evening and "Olav Trygvasson" the second evening. The soloists are: Charlotte Maconda, soprano; Grace Munson, contralto; Glenn Hall, tenor; Herbert Witherpoon, bass; Bruno Steindel, violin-cello; Van den Berg, pianist. Tickets at G. A. Crancer company, 1134 O street.

What's a dance without Tommy?
