Why is there no girls' tennis club at the University? Iowa's girls have their tennis organization, as have the daughters of Wisconsin, Minnesota and many other western universities, to say nothing of those in eastern institutions. Surely Nebraska ought to make as good a showing in this branch of athletics as her sister institutions. Or is it that the Nebraska girl has not the inclination?

The number of Senior Annuals disposed of yesterday proves that the University still has the spirit to support any enterprise which merits support. There is no better judge of the real value of a thing than the student body, nor is there any place where sham is more readily detected. The present transaction is a case of the Senior class delivering the goods and programs." This is an untruth, for the master of ceremonies gave out no programs before the march. It is evident that the author of the article was after cheap notoriety by writing falsehoods. C. M. L.

ACADEMY NOTES.

The Academy beat the Sigma Alphas in a base ball game last week.

The Girl's Basket Ball team had pictures taken before they disbanded. One is now hung on the walls of the Academy.

Prof. Thos. F. Davis will give an illustrated lantern lecture on "Mexico" tonight before the engineering society.

Professor Ross delivered a very interesting lecture on "The Graduates of Sin" at Trinity church Monday evening. It was well attended.

Quite a number of our students took advantage of the "May Morning Breakfast" to get a square meal and they are unanimous in saying they got it.

The last issue of the Academy News is just out. The staff is certainly to be congratulated on the high standards maintained in the management of this paper. It is a paper of which any school could be justly proud.

The most important event last week was the celebration of the annual "Skip Day." A few of the students took this opportunity of going home over Sunday, while the majority spent a pleasant day at Epworth Park. The kidnapping of the teachers was not quite as general as was feared.

I, Ernest E. Sprague, do hereby announce myself as candidate for student member of the Athletic Board of the University gladly paying the price. Mr. Earl F. Denny, editor-in-chief, and S. Don Skeen, business manager of the Annual of '06, deserve all the praise that the excellence of their book will bring them. To the other members of the staff who have worked so valiantly much credit must be given, for all who have a hand in such a commendable piece of work are deserving of much praise.

In an editorial of yesterday's edition concerning Company B. hop, it was stated that "a few of the '400' who happened to 'stand in' with the master of ceremonies of the dance had been provided with programs, so that they were spared the disagreeable task of lining up like ordinary mortals and taking their turn at the
